And the said Francis Capper Brooke directed his Trustees, for the purpose of ascertaining the person who should be such heir male of the body of the said Sir Thomas Brook at the time of the decease of the said Francis Capper Brooke, to insert a notice or advertisement in the London Gazette and two of the London daily newspapers, three times in each paper in each year in the course of the three years next after an event, which in fact happened on the 25th February, 1930, requiring the person who at the time of the decease of the said Francis Capper Brooke should have been the heir male of the body of the said Sir Thomas Brook, or the issue male of such person, forthwith to establish his or their title under the trusts of his will to the said properties. And the said Francis Capper Brooke further directed that the person or persons who should claim to have been the heir male of the body of the said Sir Thomas Brook at the time of the decease of the said Francis Capper Brooke, or the issue male of such person or persons, should make claim to the said properties by inserting a notice of such his or their claim in the London Gazette, and by delivering a copy of such notice signed by him or them, or his or their guardian or guardians, committee or committees, to the trustees for the time being of his will, or by affixing a copy of such notice, signed as aforesaid, to the door of the principal entrance to his said mansion house at Ufford aforesaid.

We, the undersigned, being the trustees of the said will, hereby give notice accordingly. Our address for service of notice of claim is c/o Messrs. It is further provided by the said will that in case the person who, at the time of the decease of the said Francis Capper Brooke, should be the heir male of the body of the said Sir Thomas Brook and the issue male of such person should for the period of five years next after an event which in fact happened on the 25th February, 1930, neglect or fail to make such claims as aforesaid in manner aforesaid, then and in such case all and every the trusts and provisions therein-before declared and contained in favour and for the benefit of such heir male of the body of the said Sir Thomas Brook and the issue male of such person should from and immediately after the expiration of the said period of five years, be absolutely void and of no effect, and that the trusts and provisions contained in the will to take effect from and after the decease and failure of the issue male of the heir male of the body of the said Sir Thomas Brook should be accelerated and take effect in the same manner as if there was no heir male of the body of the said Sir Thomas Brook nor any issue male of such heir male then living.

Accordingly the last day upon which a claim can be made is the 25th February, 1935, but the will requires claimants to establish their title forthwith and we, the undersigned, hereby request claimants to make their claims at an early date, and to select the alternative of delivering a copy of the notice of claim, signed as aforesaid, to us, at the address above and below mentioned in preference to affixing a copy thereof, signed as aforesaid, to the door of the principal entrance to the Mansion house at Ufford aforesaid. It is imperative for every claimant to insert a notice of his or her claim in the London Gazette, and we cannot consider any claim unless it is in the form of a copy of the notice so inserted and is signed as aforesaid.
