At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of November, 1930.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance and other lawful means His Majesty the King has jurisdiction within the dominions of the Republic of China:

And whereas by a Convention dated the 1st July, 1898, the territory of Wei-hai-wei was leased by His late Majesty the Emperor of China to Her late Majesty Queen Victoria:

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the 24th day of July, 1901, the said territory of Wei-hai-wei was removed from the operation of the Orders in Council relating to the exercise of His Majesty's jurisdiction in China, and special provision was made for the administration of the territory of Wei-hai-wei in the said Order and in the succeeding Orders set out in the Schedule hereto:

And whereas it was provided by Article 2 of the China Order in Council 1925 that the said Order should not apply within the territory leased by China under the Convention of July 1st, 1898, so long as the lease of the said territory remained in effect:

And whereas by a Convention signed the 18th day of April, 1930, it was agreed that the said territory of Wei-hai-wei should be restored to the control of the National Government of the Republic of China and in pursuance of such Convention the said territory was duly restored on the 1st day of October, 1930:

And whereas it is expedient to restore the operation in the said territory of Wei-hai-wei of the Orders in Council relating to the exercise of His Majesty's jurisdiction in China and to make provision for the exercise of such jurisdiction therein in the same manner as in other parts of China:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, 1890 and 1913 (53 & 54 Vict. c. 37, and 3 & 4 Geo. V. c. 16), or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased by and with the advice of His Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. The limits of this Order are the territory of Wei-hai-wei, including the island of Liu Kung, all the islands in the Bay of Wei-hai-wei, and the belt of land 10 English miles wide along the entire coastline of the Bay of Wei-hai-wei, together with the territorial waters of the said islands and coast.

2.—(1) The Orders enumerated in Part I of the Schedule to this Order are hereby repealed.

(2) The Orders enumerated in Part II of the Schedule to this Order shall cease to have effect within the limits of this Order.

Provided however that the provisions of this Article shall not operate so as to:

(a) Affect the past operation of the Orders specified, or any of them or any appointment made, or any right, title, obligation, or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred, or the validity or invalidity of anything done or suffered under any of those Orders, before the making of this Order; or

(b) Interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding, action, or enquiry, criminal or civil, in respect of any breach of, or offence committed against, or forfeiture incurred, or liability accrued under or in consequence of any provision of those Orders; or affect any penalty or punishment incurred in respect of any such breach, offence, forfeiture, or liability.

3. On the coming into force of this Order, the China Order in Council, 1925, and any Orders amending that Order, shall apply and shall be deemed to have applied and to have had full force and effect within the limits of this Order as from the 1st day of October, 1930, and all acts done within the limits of this Order between the 1st day of October, 1930, aforesaid and the coming into force of this Order, under the authority of the China Order in Council, 1925, and any Orders amending that Order, shall in all respects be fully as valid and effective as if this Order had come into force on the 1st October, 1930.

4. This Order shall be exhibited in the public office of the Supreme Court at Shanghai and at the office of H.M. Consulate at Wei-hai-wei, and shall come into force on the day of exhibition.

5. This Order may be cited as the Wei-hai-wei Order in Council, 1930.

And the Right Honourable Arthur Henderson, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

Colin Smith.

Board of Trade.—January 1931.

LUTON GAS.

(Application for Special Order under the Gas Undertakings Acts 1920 and 1929.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade forthwith by the Luton Gas Company (hereinafter called "the Company") whose address is Dunstable Road, Luton, for a Special Order under the Gas Undertakings Acts 1920 and 1929, for all or some of the following (amongst other) purposes (that is to say):—

1. To convert into stock either of one class or of several classes with such rights, privileges and incidents as the Order may prescribe any class of shares in the existing ordinary capital of the Company, to provide for the creation and issue of stock in substitution for any existing ordinary shares of the Company and to make all necessary and convenient provisions for giving effect to such conversion.

2. To authorise and require Trustees and others to accept the stock so to be issued in substitution for shares held by them and to make provisions as to the transfers or other dispositions of the ordinary shares of the Company made but not registered prior to the date of conversion.

3. To authorise the Company to raise by the creation and issue of consolidated ordinary stock of such class or classes as the Order may prescribe or new preference shares or stock or wholly or partly by one or more of those modes respectively any moneys which they are authorised to raise under the Luton Gas Act 1890 (hereinafter called "the Act of 1890") and the Luton Gas Act 1911 (hereinafter called "the Act of 1911") by the creation and issue of new ordinary shares or stock or new preference shares or stock.

4. To authorise the Company to raise additional capital by the creation and issue of further amounts of consolidated ordinary stock of such class or classes as the Order may prescribe or by the creation and issue of new preference shares or stock or wholly or partly by one of those modes respectively.

5. To amend Section 7 of the Act of 1890 and Section 8 of the Act of 1911 so far as the same relate to the nominal value of shares to be issued by the Company.

6. To make new provisions as to the sale of consolidated ordinary stock and preference shares or stock in the capital of the Company by auction or tender.

7. To empower the directors of the Company to reserve a proportion of any future issue of capital for exclusive offer to consumers of gas and to the employees of the Company and to make provisions as to the conditions of issue.

8. To empower the directors of the Company with the consent of the Board of Trade to offer capital for subscription by the holders of ordinary or preference shares or stocks or debenture stock of the Company and by consumers of gas and employees of the Company without first offering the same for sale by public auction or tender.

9. To increase the amount of money which the Company may borrow on mortgage or raise by the creation and issue of debenture stock in respect of their existing capital.

10. To empower the Company to raise additional money by borrowing on mortgage and by the creation and issue of debenture stock or by either of such means.

(hereinafter called "the added area") and to provide that the Company shall have and may exercise within the added area all powers, rights and privileges which they have within their existing limits of supply.

23. To empower the Company by agreement to purchase gasworks, mains, pipes and other works from any company or person supplying gas within the limits of the Company and to apply their funds for that purpose.

24. To authorise the Company to maintain, hold and use or to dispose of any gasworks, mains, pipes and other works so purchased and to apply thereto if thought fit some or all of the provisions of any Act or Order relating to the undertaking of the Company.

25. To empower the Company to purchase additional lands by agreement.

26. To authorise the Company to adapt lands for the purpose of sports or recreation grounds and upon such lands to erect, construct and maintain dressing-rooms and other buildings, works and conveniences and to make provision with respect to the admission of persons to any such sports or recreation ground.

27. To define the price which may be charged by the Company for gas supplied within the added area including provisions empowering the Company to charge different prices for gas supplied by them in different parts of the added area.

28. To make new provisions with respect to the holding and use of patent rights by the Company and with respect to the grant of patents to the Company jointly with other persons and the rights and remedies of the joint grantees.

29. To make new or further provisions for the prevention of the improper use of gas as to the mode of cutting off supplies, the expenses of reconnecting a discontinued supply, the giving of a supply of gas where the consumer has a separate supply, the construction and placing of pipes etc., the provision of valves where high pressure air or gas not supplied by the Company is used, the provision of anti-fluctuators in connection with gas engines, the entry on premises to which a supply of gas is laid on, the removal of fittings where a supply of gas is discontinued, the exemption of the Company from obligation to supply gas when the capacity of the main is insufficient, the period of error in defective meters, the charges for special reading of meters, the authentication and service of notices by the Company, the inclusion of several sums in one summons and the recovery of penalties and demands.

30. To authorise the Company and any local authority, company or person to enter into and carry into effect agreements and arrangements as to the supply to or by the Company of gas in bulk.

31. The Order will vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would impede or interfere with its purposes and confer other rights and privileges.

32. To repeal, alter or amend all or any of the provisions of the Luton Gas Acts 1858 to 1911 and any other Act or Order relating to the Company or their undertaking.

33. To incorporate with the Order with or without modification, or to render inapplicable all or some of the provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871, the Lands Clauses Acts and the Companies Clauses Acts, 1845, 1863 and 1869.

Any local or other public authority, company or person desiring to bring before the Board of Trade any objection to the draft Order may do so by registered letter addressed to the Director of Gas Administration, Board of Trade, Great George Street, London, S.W. 1, and despatched on or before the 23rd day of February, 1931.

Any such objection shall state:—

- (a) The specific grounds of objection; and
- (b) The omissions, additions or modifications asked for.

A copy of the objection must at the same time be forwarded to the undermentioned Parliamentary Agents.
