Notice is hereby given that The KING's Birthday will be celebrated in London and at all Stations both at home and abroad on Wednesday, the 3rd June next.

In the cases of the Customs and Excise Departments and the Officers and Servants of the Dock Companies in England and Northern Ireland, the day appointed for this celebration will be Saturday, the 6th June next.

Whitehall, February 1, 1931.

His Majesty The KING has been graciously pleased to award the Albert Medal to Mr. Leonard Pemberton, in recognition of his gallantry in endeavouring to save life in the following circumstances:—

On the 14th November, 1930, a number of children were bathing in the Zambesi River at Livingstone, Northern Rhodesia, at a point where a wire enclosure, no longer crocodile proof, had been made some time ago. One of the boys was seen suddenly to disappear. Mr. Pemberton, who was sitting on the bank, dived in fully clothed and despite the fact that he was convalescing from a recent illness, made repeated attempts to save the boy from a crocodile which was holding him under water. Mr. Pemberton was fully aware that he was close to a man-eating crocodile which might at any moment have turned and attacked him and in acting as he did displayed courage of a very high degree.

Mr. Pemberton was unfortunately unsuccessful in his efforts to bring the victim to the surface.

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

For Meritorious Service.

Abraham Johannes Mommsen, Livingstone, Northern Rhodesia.

Abraham Johannes Mommsen, an engine driver employed by the Rhodesian Railways, displayed great courage in retrieving the body of a boy, Joey Van Straaten, who had been taken the previous day by a crocodile while bathing in the Zambesi.

Mommsen went to the scene of the tragedy and, after repeatedly diving into the crocodile-infested waters, he found the boy's body at a considerable distance from the bank at a depth of twenty feet.
