

charge of £70 to be as from the day aforesaid due and payable to the Incumbent of the said Benefice of Little Marsden and the same annual sum or yearly charge to be apportionable between any outgoing Incumbent of the Benefice of Little Marsden or his representatives on the one hand and his successors in the same incumbency on the other hand, and to be receivable by the Incumbent in whose favour it is charged as aforesaid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of January, the first day of April, the first day of July, and the first day of October in every year; and for the recovery of the said yearly charge of £70 the Incumbent of the said Benefice of Little Marsden and his successors shall have and be entitled to all the powers and remedies provided by Sections 121 and 122 of the Law of Property Act, 1925, in respect of rent-charges to which those Sections apply.

"Provided always that if at any time the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Standish shall by any deed duly executed by him under his hand and seal in accordance with the provisions of any Statute in that behalf enabling him, grant convey and annex to the said Benefice of Little Marsden any part or parts of the Rectorial endowments belonging to the said Benefice of Standish which shall in the opinion of the Bishop of Blackburn for the time being be a just and fair equivalent or not less than an equivalent for the said yearly charge of £70 hereby proposed to be created as aforesaid then the same annual sum or yearly charge of £70 shall thereupon and thenceforth cease and determine; and be no longer payable as hereinbefore recommended and proposed.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Blackburn.

M. P. A. Hankey.
