

Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Lincoln has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid :

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Lincoln.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of December, 1931.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 12th day of November, 1931, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Ollerton with a part of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Boughton, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Nottingham and in the Diocese of Southwell :

“Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Southwell, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the rearrangement of the said two Benefices of Ollerton and Boughton and the Benefice of Wellow situate in the same County and Diocese, duly made their report to the said Bishop of Southwell and therein recommended the union of the said Benefice of Ollerton with a part of the said Benefice of Boughton and the terms for effecting the same and the said Bishop of Southwell signified in writing his approval of the said Report :

“And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the said union based upon the terms recommended in the said Report :

“And whereas the said Benefices of Ollerton and Boughton are now full, the Reverend Edward Frederick Holwell Dunnicliff being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Ollerton and the Reverend Eugene Kirkpatrick Hyslop being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Boughton :

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Henry, Bishop of Southwell (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Edward Frederick Holwell Dunnicliff and Eugene Kirkpatrick Hyslop (testified by their respectively signing this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

“1. That the said Benefice of Ollerton and a part of the said Benefice of Boughton, namely, all that part of the Parish of such Benefice which forms part of the new Colliery Village of Ollerton, including certain cottages lying on the east side of Whinny Lane and Wellow Road and certain other cottages lying on both sides of Retford Road (all which part is set out and delineated upon the Map or Plan annexed hereto and thereon coloured pink) shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with cure of souls and one Parish for all ecclesiastical purposes under the style of ‘The Benefice of Ollerton’ (hereinafter referred to as the United Benefice).

“2. That upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect and the said Edward Frederick Holwell Dunnicliff if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Ollerton shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

“3. That upon the union taking effect all the Tithe rent charges, Glebe lands and all other the endowments belonging to the said Benefice of Boughton or which may hereafter belong to the same Benefice shall be charged and for ever after be chargeable in favour of the Incumbent for the time being of the United Benefice with a clear annual sum or yearly rent charge of £100; the same annual sum or yearly rent charge to be as from the date of the said union taking effect due and payable to the Incumbent of the said United Benefice and the said annual sum or yearly rent charge to be apportionable between any outgoing Incumbent of the said United Benefice or his representatives on the one hand and his successor in the same Incumbency on the other hand and to be receivable by the Incumbent in whose favour it is charged as aforesaid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year and for the recovery of the said yearly rentcharge the Incumbent of the said United Benefice and his successors shall have and be entitled to all the powers and remedies provided by Sections 121 and 122 of the Law of Property Act, 1925, in respect of rentcharges to which those Sections apply. Provided always that if at any time the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Boughton shall by any deed duly executed by him under his hand and seal in accordance with the provisions of any statute in that behalf enabling him, grant, convey and annex to the said United Benefice any part or parts of the endowments belonging to the said Benefice of Boughton which shall in the opinion of the Bishop of Southwell for the time being be a just and fair equivalent or not less than an equivalent for the said yearly rentcharge hereby proposed to be created as aforesaid then such yearly rentcharge shall thereupon and thenceforth cease and be no longer payable.
