

Re ISABELLA ANNIE LEATON (formerly CUTHBERT), Deceased.

The above named, herein referred to as "the deceased" (a daughter of Annie Maria Cuthbert née Peer by her second marriage, who married first Harry Rowbotham and secondly Currie Cuthbert) was the Widow of the late Joseph Perkins Leaton and died at Kettering on the 8th day of March, 1931, aged 49, leaving two testamentary writings, the later (comprised in a printed will form) containing words impliedly purporting to revoke the earlier testamentary writing. Probate of both the said testamentary writings was granted by the Principal Probate Registry to Arthur William Leaton and Thomas Matthew Wilson on the 17th day of November, 1931.

NOTICE is hereby given pursuant to the Trustee Act, 1925, that all persons having any claims or demands against the estate of the deceased and more particularly any persons being Brothers or Sisters of the deceased, whether of the whole or half blood, or their issue, are hereby required to send in particulars of their respective claims or relationship as aforesaid to the undersigned on or before the 12th day of March, 1932, after which day the said executors will proceed to distribute the assets of the deceased in accordance with the tenor of both the said testamentary writings; and further that the said executors will not be responsible thereafter for the assets, or any part thereof, to any person of whose claim or said relationship they shall not then have had notice.—Dated this 24th day of December, 1931.
