The Colonial Stock Acts, 1877 to 1900, shall, subject to the modifications set out in the next succeeding paragraph of this Order, be extended so as to apply to stock issued after the passing of the Colonial Development Act, 1929, and forming part of the public debt of the Federated Malay States as if the Federated Malay States were a colony.

2. For the purposes of section two of the Colonial Stock Act, 1900, the following conditions shall have effect in relation to stock to which the Colonial Stock Acts, 1877 to 1900, apply by virtue of this Order as if they had been prescribed by the Treasury under that section:—

(a) Provision must be made by legislation of the Federated Malay States for the payment out of the revenues of the Federated Malay States of any sums which may become payable to stockholders under any judgment, decree, rule or order of a court in the United Kingdom;

(b) The Treasury must be satisfied that adequate funds, as and when required, will be available in the United Kingdom to meet any such judgment, decree, rule or order;

(c) The Treasury must be satisfied that the Rulers of the Federated Malay States have entered into a treaty with His Majesty by which the Rulers agree that no legislation of the Federated Malay States affecting the stock shall be passed unless the concurrence of His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom has first been had and obtained thereto.

3. This Order may be cited as the Colonial Stock Acts Extension (Federated Malay States) Order, 1932.
