

Captain (E), the qualification prescribed by Order in Council dated 17th May, 1867, namely, long and meritorious service, being cancelled when the provisions of this Order become operative."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Colin Smith.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 26th day of June, 1933.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Minister of Health, after giving to the Incumbent and Churchwardens of the Parish of Kennington, in the County of Kent, 10 days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by subsequent enactments, made a Representation to His Majesty in Council that for the protection of the Public Health, the opening of any new burial ground in the Civil Parish of Kennington, in the said County of Kent, save with the previous approval of the Minister of Health, should be prohibited, and that, except as hereinafter provided, burials should be discontinued therein as follows, viz.:-

Kennington.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Mary, in the said Parish, and in the Churchyard attached thereto.

Provided that—

In the walled grave now existing in the said Churchyard and belonging or reputed to belong to the Allchin family, the burial may be allowed of the body of Mrs. Avice Allchin at her decease subject to the condition that the coffin buried in such grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give Notice of such Representation and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 8th day of August next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the Parish affected by such Representation one month before the said 8th day of August.

The following Address was presented to The KING on the occasion of the opening by His Majesty of South Africa House in London on the 22nd June, 1933.

THE HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR THE UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA.

In expressing to Your Majesty, and to Her Majesty the Queen, the deep gratitude and appreciation felt by Your Majesty's subjects in the Union of South Africa for the Royal favour of Your Majesty's presence at this ceremony to-day, which marks again the affectionate and watchful interest which Your Majesty so constantly brings to bear upon the affairs of those great countries which comprise the British Commonwealth of Nations, it is my happy privilege to be charged by the Prime Minister to deliver to Your Majesty, with
