

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday June 2. to Sunday June 6. 1698.

Genova, May 20. N. S.

THE Prince of Vaudemont arrived here the 17th instant, and came by Land from Monaco, the ill weather we have had of late not permitting the two Gallies of Turfs, which were appointed to fetch him from thence to put to Sea. He lay that night in the Duke of Turfs's Palace, in the Suburb of St. Peter d' Arena, and the day following was Entertained in this City by the Marquis of Grillo, at whose House he was Complimented by the Persons of chiefest Quality; and this day he set out for Milan. He declined receiving the Compliments of the Senate, because they would not give him the Title of Highness; but the Senate have given Orders, that Provision be made for him in his Journey through their Territories at the Charge of the Republick. Deputies from the City of Milan came hither to attend him, but he deferred giving them Audience till his arrival at Pavia, where he will be met likewise by those of the Senate of Milan; and the Marquis of Leganez intends to come as far as the Frontiers of that State to meet him. The Inhabitants of Mondovi have refused to pay a new Tax the Duke of Savoy has lately laid upon Salt, whereupon he has ordered some Troops to march that way to force them to it.

Madrid, May 23. The Court continues at Toledo; and the King's Health is very much mended; and he goes abroad almost every day to Hunt or to take other Diversions. The Queen was lately Indisposed, but is very well again. The Imperial and French Ambassadors have been at Toledo to wait on the King. The arrival of the Gallions at Cadiz is daily expected. The Marquis of Beliadries, who is appointed to be Governor of Centa, will be going thither in a few days. We have the following Account from that Place: On the 3d instant, the Besieged saw a Body of Horse and Foot, with 40 laden Mules, come into the Moors Camp, among whom there appeared to be some Persons of Consideration, seeing the Alcaide who Commands at the Siege, went to meet them. The same day the Enemy plied their Cannon very warmly and shot several Bombs into the Town. The 4th, they invited the Besieged to a Parley, which being refused, they continued firing as before. On the 7th, The Moors received another Reinforcement, with which they are said to be 16000 strong. They again called upon the Spaniards, to know if they would come to a Parley, and how the King of Spain did, but no Answer was returned them. That day the City was supplied by 18 Vessels laden with all manner of Provisions, and two Gallies sent from Gibraltar, which brought in with them a Sattee they had taken, having on Board 7 Moors, who reported, That one of their Generals was killed in the Trenches by a Shot from the Town; and that they have lost one of their best Gunners, who was a Renegade. They continue the Siege with great Obstinacy.

Warsaw, May 27. The Peace and Tranquillity of this Kingdom being happily restored by the Agreement between the King and the Gentlemen of the Rokotz, and the Submission the latter have made thereupon; The King's Ministers do now employ their Care to Compose the Differences that have of late given so much Trouble to the Great Dutchy of Lithuania, and for this Reason, Orders have been sent to Prince Sapieha, and the Sieur Oginsky, the Heads of the two Contending Parties, to forbear all further Acts of Hostility against each other, and Commissioners will be sent by the King to endeavour to Reconcile them. The Cardinal Primate continues here; but has not yet taken the Oath of Fidelity to the King; which he would do in a General Diet, but the King will not have it delayed so long; 'Tis probable this Point will be soon adjusted. The Senate was assembled this day to consider of the Proposals of Peace made by the Turks; but this does not stop the preparations for the War. The Forces the King has sent for from Saxony are daily expected, and those which are coming from Hungary, are ordered to take the shortest way to Russland, where is appointed the Rendezvous of the Army. The Duke of Wirtemberg is arrived here to Command the King's German Forces.

Vienna, May 28. The Count of Martinitz, the Emperor's Ambassador to the Pope, is lately arrived here from Rome, having obtained Leave to return on account of his private Affairs. The Preparations for the Campaign are made with much diligence. The 6 new Vessels built here are now ready to receive their Complement of Men, who are daily expected from Hamburg, and other Places, where they have been raised by the Sieur d'Assenberg, who is to Command the Emperor's Fleet on the Danube. We hear from Hungary, That the Forces of Brandenburg are marching homewards, and those of Saxony to Poland. Our Letters from Hermanstadt say, The Turks are at work to repair Vypalanka; and that they had Advice, That the Grand Signior intended to go from Adrianople on the 13th of this month, and to lie in his Tents near that place, in order to march towards Hungary, so soon as the Asiatick Troops were arrived.

Francfort, June 4. The Sieur Desbordes, Governor of Philipsburg, has sent an Express hither to give Notice, That in case the Town of Rhinfeldt, with it's Dependencies, be restored by the Landgrave of Hesse, to the Landgrave of Rhinfeldt, by the 10th instant, he will be ready with his Garrison to march out of Philipsburg on the 17th, and that Fribourg, Brisack, and the Fort of Keyl, shall in a short time after be likewise Evacuated.

Cologne, June 6. The Baron of Hettcrman, Envoy from the Elector Palatine to the States General, is lately come to Dusseldorp, and will be dispatched back in a few days with new Instructions about some Matters in Dispute concerning the County of Ravesteyn.

Membres