Rome, May 24. N. S.

THE Pope, who has been Indisposed, is very well again, and has given this week the usual Audiences to the Foreign Ministers. The Envoy of Poland now here, having Orders to Notify the King his Master's Accession to the Crown, to the several Courts of Italy, intends to go hence in few days to perform that Commission. The Book published some time ago by the Archbishop of Cambray, having been sent to the Pope by the Court of France, where the said Archbishop is Charged with favouring the Quietists, a Congregation of Cardinals was appointed to Examine the said Book, who have met several times, and are much divided in their Opinions concerning it. Orders have been given to the Pope's Gallies that are to join the Venetian Fleet this Summer, to put to Sea with all possible Expedition. We hear from Naples, That the Duke of Medina Celi is continued Viceroy of that Kingdom for 3 years longer. The Prince of Belvidera has lately taken Orders, which has occasioned a Report, That the Pope has promised him a Cardinal's Cap.

Leghorn, May 26. This week the James, laden with Fish, and the Isabella, laden with Hides, came into this Port both from Ireland; as also, the Resolution, Captain Croncker Commander, from Lisbon, and the Rush, Captain Archer, with Bale Goods. The Thomas and Ann, Captain Gibbs Commander, is ready to sail for London. We have Advice by some Barks from Algiers, That the Plague is broke out in those Parts.

Milan, May 28. The Prince of Vaudemont, our Governor, arrived here last Saturday. He was met at Tortona, a Place on the Frontiers of this State by the Marquis of Leganez, and at Pavia by Deputies from our City and Senate, and from the other Cities of this Dutchy; and since his arrival, he has received the Visits and Compliments of Cardinal Caccia, the Foreign Ministers, and all the Persons of Quality that are in Town.

Warsaw, May 30. The Emperor having Communicated to this Court the Proposals made by the Turks for setting on Foot a Treaty of Peace, and desired the King would send Ambassadors to Vienna with the necessary Powers to this effect, the Senate here have been assembled to consider thereof, but have not yet taken any Resolution in this Matter. The Queen-Dowager has acquainted the King, that she lies under an Obligation to go to Rome, to perform a Vow she lately made, and desires she may have leave to depart out of this Kingdom accordingly, which has been likewise considered by the Senate, but nothing yet resolved. The Primate seems still unwilling to take the Oath of Fidelity to the King before the meeting of the General Diet, but would be allowed in the mean time to Sit and Vote in the Senate; This the King and the rest of the Senators will not Consent to, and the Cardinal finding he cannot gain this Point, will in all probability yield it.

The Differences and Animofities in Lithuania are much encreased since the Assault made on the Deputies from the Discontented Nobility, in their Journey hither; And a Party of Prince Sapieha's Men have lately plundered the Suburbs of the City of Wilda, because of their Adhering to the Interests of the Sieur Oginsky. At the same time the Army in Lithuania take part with their General Prince Sapieha, and have sent Deputies to Court to make Complaints against the Sieur Oginsky, as well as to sollicit the Payment of their Arrears; which has been already granted to the Forces of Poland, to Enable them to take the Field this Summer against the Turks. The late Troubles in this Kingdom have much hindered the Preparations for the next Campaign, especially the providing the necessary Magazines, the want whereof may prove a great obstacle to the Design of Besieging Caminier. However, the King's Forces continue their march towards Russeland; and those which came from Prussia are arrived in the Neighbourhood of this place, where they will stay a few days to refresh themselves. The Letters from Lemberg of the 14th say, The Tartars have lately supplied Caminier with Provisions, and afterwards made an Incurfion into the Territories of this Kingdom, but had not time to commit the Spoil they intended, being alarmed by the notice they had of the march of some of our Forces, and retiring thereupon in great haste and disorder.

Vienna, May 31. The Imperial Court continues at Luxembourg, where the Prince of Lorraine, Bishop of Osnabrug, lately received from the Emperor, the Investiture of the Fiefs belonging to that Bishoprick. Don Pathieco de Sousa, Envoy of Portugal, has had his Audience of Leave of their Imperial Majesties, and intends to go hence the next week. An Express is arrived here from Poland, with an Account, That all Matters are accommodated with the Cardinal Primate, and the Gentlemen of his Party, which puts the King of Poland very much at Ease, and will Enable him to pursue with greater Vigour the War against the Turks. A great Train of heavy Cannon is preparing here in order to be forthwith sent to Peter Waradin. Several Recruits, and other Forces, pass daily by this place in their way to Hungary; and Orders are given for providing the Magazines there with all things necessary for the Subsistence of the Army. Our Letters from Peter Waradin say, Some Turkish Horse are come to Nissa, and that their Foot are gathering about Belgrade; and that on Advice, that the Turks of Belgrade came frequently in their Sacks towards Titul, to allarm the Country, the Baron of Nehem, who Commands at Peter Waradin, had sent 3 Barks with Soldiers along the Danube to observe them. We have an Account from Transilvania, That the Turks continue with great diligence to repair the Fortifications of Vypalanka, and to build others along the Save, by which they intend to cover Belgrade: That they take the like Care to provide for the security of Temeswar, and are getting ready a great quantity of Provisions for
