

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of December, 1933.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 214 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894 (57 & 58 Vict. c. 60), it is provided that a local authority, whose district includes a seaport, may, with the approval of the Board of Trade, make byelaws relating to seamen's lodging houses in their district, and that those byelaws shall be binding upon all persons keeping houses in which seamen are lodged, and upon the owners thereof and persons employed therein; and further, that such byelaws shall, amongst other things, provide for the licensing, inspection, and sanitary conditions of seamen's lodging houses, for the publication of the fact of a house being licensed, for the due execution of the byelaws, for preventing the obstruction of persons engaged in securing that execution, for the preventing of persons not duly licensed holding themselves out as keeping or purporting to keep licensed houses, and for the exclusion from licensed houses of persons of improper character, and shall impose sufficient fines, not exceeding fifty pounds, for the breach of any byelaw; and further, that whenever His Majesty in Council orders that in any district or any part thereof, none but persons duly licensed in pursuance of byelaws under the said Section shall keep seamen's lodging houses or let lodgings to seamen from a date therein named, a person acting in contravention of that order shall for each offence be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds:

And whereas the Council of the Borough of Falmouth (hereinafter called "the Borough Council") is the local authority in the Borough of Falmouth and a local authority within the meaning of the said Section:

And whereas the Borough Council have, with the approval of the Board of Trade, made Byelaws to come into force on the 1st day of January, 1934:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. None but persons duly licensed in pursuance of the said Byelaws which come into force on the 1st day of January, 1934, shall keep seamen's lodging houses or let lodgings to seamen in the district of the Borough Council, including the seaport of Falmouth or in any part thereof.

2. This Order may be cited as the Merchant Shipping (Falmouth Seamen's Lodging-houses Keepers) Order, 1933.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of December, 1933.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter 134, of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her late

Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 49, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Representation, bearing date the 9th day of November, 1933, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter 134, of the Act of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 49, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Representation as to the assignment of a District Chapelry to the consecrated Church of Saint Francis of Assisi, situate at Gladstone Park, in the New Parish (sometime District) of Saint Andrew, Willesden, in the County of Middlesex and in the Diocese of London:

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a District Chapelry should be assigned to the said Church of Saint Francis of Assisi situate at Gladstone Park as aforesaid:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said New Parish of Saint Andrew, Willesden, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a District Chapelry to the said Church of Saint Francis of Assisi, situate at Gladstone Park as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Francis, Gladstone Park.'

"And with the like consent of the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said Church of Saint Francis of Assisi, situate at Gladstone Park as aforesaid, and that the fees or dues to be received in respect of the publication of banns and of the solemnization or performance of marriages, churchings and burials should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"THE SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Francis, Gladstone Park, being:—

"All that part of the New Parish (sometime District) of Saint Andrew, Willesden, in the County of Middlesex and in the Diocese of London, which is bounded upon the west and upon the north-west by the New Parish of Neasden cum Kingsbury, upon the north-east partly by the New Parish of Saint Michael, Cricklewood, and partly by the New Parish of Saint Gabriel, Willesden Green, all in the said County and Diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south, by an imaginary line commencing at
