At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of December, 1933.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, His Majesty The King has power and jurisdiction in relation to His Majesty's subjects and others within the dominions of His Majesty the Sultan of Morocco:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act 1890, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Morocco (Amendment) Order in Council, 1933.

(2) This Order shall be construed as one with the "Morocco Orders in Council 1889-1929 Consolidated", and the said Consolidated Orders and this Order may be cited as "The Morocco Orders in Council 1889-1933 Consolidated".

(3) A copy of the Morocco Orders in Council 1889-1929 Consolidated with the amendments, whether by way of substitution, addition or omission required by this Order, and intitled the "Morocco Orders in Council 1889-1933 Consolidated" shall be prepared and certified by the Secretary of State and copies of the Morocco Orders in Council 1889-1933 Consolidated shall be printed in accordance with the copy so certified, containing the certificate of the Secretary of State as aforesaid printed at the heading thereof, which certificate shall recite the provisions of this and the preceding paragraphs of this Article, and such copies may hereafter, except in regard to matters covered by Article 2 (2) of this Order, be exclusively referred to for all purposes connected with the exercise of jurisdiction by His Majesty in Morocco.

(4) No further copies of the Morocco Orders in Council 1889-1929 Consolidated shall be printed and the copies of the Morocco Orders in Council 1889-1933 Consolidated referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be printed as soon as the existing stock of printed copies of Morocco Orders in Council 1889-1929 Consolidated are exhausted.

2.—(1) This Order shall come into force on the 1st January, 1934.

(2) No provision of this Order amending or repealing any provision of any previous Order shall affect the past operation of such previous Order or anything done thereunder.

(3) Printed copies of this Order shall forthwith be affixed and exhibited conspicuously in the public offices of all His Majesty's consular posts in the French and Spanish Zones of Morocco.

(4) Proof shall not be required in any proceeding or matter that the provisions of the preceding paragraph of this Article have been complied with, nor shall any failure to comply with the said provisions in any manner affect the operation of this Order.

3. Article 119 of the Morocco Orders in Council 1889-1929 Consolidated is hereby repealed and the following Article shall be substituted therefor:—

119. (1) A register of persons subject to this Order shall be kept in the office of every Consulate in Morocco.

(2) Every person subject to this Order resident in Morocco shall, in the month of January of each year, be registered at the Consulate of the consular district within which he resides, provided that, if some other Consulate is more easy of access, he may, with the assent of the consular officer, be registered there. A person subject to this Order arriving in Morocco must apply for registration within one month after his arrival; provided that a person who fails to apply for or obtain registration within the time limited by this Article may be registered at any time if he excuses his failure to the satisfaction of the consular officer.

(3) Where a person subject to this Order is in possession of a valid British passport, the consular officer shall, on the first registration of any such person, endorse on the passport without further fee than that provided for in sub-Article (6) hereunder a certificate of registration in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of State. Where any such person applies for the renewal of the registration and produces his passport, the renewal of the registration shall without further fee than that provided for in sub-Article (6) hereunder be endorsed thereon.

(4) Every person who has not previously been registered applying to be registered under this Order shall, unless excused by the consular officer, attend personally for that purpose at the Consulate, but any person applying for the renewal of his registration need not attend personally unless directed by the consular officer so to do, provided that the registration of the wife or wives of a man who is registered under this Order may, if living with him, be effected without their personal attendance being required, and provided also that the registration of minors, being his relatives in whatever degree, living with the head of a family who is registered under this Order, may be effected without their personal attendance being required.

(5) A person registered in any register, established under the provisions of any Order in Council which have been repealed shall be registered under the provisions of this Order, unless the consular officer is satisfied after inquiry that the previous registration was erroneous or that such person is not entitled to registration under the provisions of this Order.

(6) Every person shall, on every registration of himself, and on every renewal of the registration, pay a fee of five shillings or such other fee as the Secretary of State from time to time appoints. The amount of the fee may be uniform for all persons, or may vary according to the position and circumstances of different classes, if the Secretary of State from time to time so directs, but may not in any case exceed one pound.

(7) Where any person applies to be registered, he shall be entitled without a fee to the assistance of the consular officer in the preparation of any affidavit that may be required.

(8) The consular officer may require the production of such evidence that an applicant for registration is entitled to the status of a person subject to this Order as he may see fit, but subject to such directions as may be issued by the Secretary of State.

(9) If any person subject to this Order neglects to obtain registration under the provisions of this Order, he shall not be entitled to be recognised or protected as a British subject or a British protected person, as the case may be, in Morocco, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two pounds for each instance of such failure, but he shall, although not registered, be subject to the jurisdiction of His Majesty's Courts in Morocco.

4. Article 124 of the Morocco Orders in Council 1889-1929 Consolidated is hereby repealed and the following article shall be substituted therefor:—

124.—(1) It shall be lawful for the Consul-General and the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court from time to time to make Rules and Forms of Procedure as to all civil or criminal matters, subject to the approval of the Secretary of State.

(2) Until such Rules and Forms have been made, or in relation to matters to which they do not extend, a Court may adopt and use any procedure or forms as were heretofore in use in the Consular Courts in Morocco, or any Regulations or Rules made thereunder and in force immediately before the commencement of this Order, or as are for the time being in use in the Supreme Court of Gibraltar, with any modifications or adaptations which may be necessary.

(3) No proceeding shall be invalidated by any informality, mistake, or omission, so long as, in the opinion of any Court before which any question arises, the essential requisites of law and justice have been complied with.

(4) Provision may, amongst other things, be made by Rules under this Article authorising the Court to grant and enforce search-warrants, and to enforce awards, and to enforce by distress, or by attachment or commitment, judgments or orders of the Court, or payment of any damages, costs, penalties, fines, or forfeitures, and for the sale of things forfeited, and for garnishee process, and for attachments of property in order to compel appearance or submission to the jurisdiction or process of the Court, and authorising the Court to compel, by fine, distress, or recognisance, or in default of security by commitment, the attendance of witnesses before the Court, or before a Colonial or other Court to which a case is sent for trial, and to take and transmit depositions of witnesses for use at trials in the United Kingdom or in a British possession, protectorate or mandated territory, and to prescribe forms of indictment or charge in criminal proceedings; and authorising the Court to cause service to be made of writs and other processes of a civil or commercial character on behalf of other tribunals whether situated in Morocco or not, and if outside Morocco whether situated in His Majesty's dominions, protectorates or mandated territories or in any foreign state in amity with His Majesty.

(5) Provision may also be made by Rules made under this Article to prescribe and enforce the fees to be taken in respect of any proceedings under this Order, not exceeding, as regards any matters provided for by the Act of Parliament 6 George IV c. 87, the fees fixed and allowed from time to time by any Order in Council made under that Act, provided that the scales of all fees prescribed under this Article shall have been sanctioned by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

(6) All fees prescribed by or under any Article of this Order shall be paid in local currency at the market rate of exchange for sterling, provided that such rate shall not be such as to require:—

(a) in the case of French or Moroccan francs, less than 125 francs to the pound sterling:

(b) in the case of Spanish pesetas, less than 26 pesetas to the pound sterling; and, if the market rates of exchange for sterling would require less than the amounts of francs or pesetas aforesaid, the rate of exchange for sterling shall be the said rates.

And the Right Honourable Sir John Allsebrook Simon, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

M. P. A. Hankey.

Whitehall, January 2, 1934.

The KING has been pleased, by Warrant under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, bearing date the 1st instant, to appoint Sir Thomas James Barnes, C.B.E., to be His Majesty's Procurator in all causes and matters Matrimonial, Maritime, Foreign, Civil and Ecclesiastical, in the room of Sir Maurice Linford Gwyer, K.O.B., K.C.

Whitehall, December 18, 1933.

His Majesty The KING has been graciously pleased to award the Edward Medal to William Edward Goff in recognition of his gallantry in the following circumstances:—

On the 16th October, 1933, Mr. A. R. Cooke, a farmer, of Pump Farm, Backford, Cheshire, was attacked by a bull in the yard behind his house. The farmer tried to hold the infuriated animal off, but became exhausted and was thrown to the ground and gored by the bull. Goff, who is employed by the farmer, is 16 years of age, but small in height and build for his age. He heard the farmer cry for help and ran to his master's assistance armed with a pikel. Goff rushed at the bull and by thrusting the pikel several times into the animal's head succeeded in driving it off for a short distance, while the farmer managed to get into safety. The farmer was seriously injured, and but for the boy's intervention, would almost certainly have been gored to death.

(183) for the said Administrator.

Pursuant to section 27 of the Trustee Act, 1925.

NOTICE is hereby given by the Public Trustee, the sole Trustee of the Will of THOMAS BAKER, formerly of Grasmere Villa, Campbell Road, Croydon, Surrey, who died on the 30th October, 1897, that on the death of his Daughter, Harriett Mary Godson, on the 4th March, 1933, at South View Nursing Home, 1, The Terrace, Camden Square, London, N.W.1, the estate of the testator became distributable among the persons who, at the death of Mrs. Godson, were of the testator's blood, and of kin to him, and who under the Statutes for distribution would have been entitled to his personal estate if he had died immediately after Mrs. Godson. The Public Trustee, as the result of enquiries made by him, believes that the following conclusions are correct:—

1. That Mrs. Godson had no issue.
2. That the testator had no child who attained the age of 21 years other than Mrs. Godson, and no Brother or Sister other than William Baker, who was a Farmer, living at Kempston, in the county of Bedford, and who died on the 5th May, 1877.

3. That all William Baker's children died before Mrs. Godson, without leaving issue, except Thomas William Baker and Ann E. Bennett.

In the absence of any claim inconsistent with the above conclusions being received by him in answer to and within the time limited by this advertisement, the Public Trustee will distribute the estate in accordance therewith.

One of the children of William Baker above referred to, namely, John Baker, married Fordie Drayton on the 28th February, 1878, at St. Alban's Abbey, Herts, and was last heard of about the year 1904 in Western Australia, and is believed to have had no children. His Wife was known to be living some years after the year 1904.

All persons claiming to be entitled must send in particulars of their claims to Messrs. Maples Teesdale & Co., of 6, Frederick's Place, Old Jewry, London, E.C.2, within two months from the date of this advertisement, or they will be excluded from participation.
