

Foreign Jurisdiction Act 1890, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Morocco (Amendment) Order in Council, 1933.

(2) This Order shall be construed as one with the "Morocco Orders in Council 1889-1929 Consolidated", and the said Consolidated Orders and this Order may be cited as "The Morocco Orders in Council 1889-1933 Consolidated".

(3) A copy of the Morocco Orders in Council 1889-1929 Consolidated with the amendments, whether by way of substitution, addition or omission required by this Order, and intitled the "Morocco Orders in Council 1889-1933 Consolidated" shall be prepared and certified by the Secretary of State and copies of the Morocco Orders in Council 1889-1933 Consolidated shall be printed in accordance with the copy so certified, containing the certificate of the Secretary of State as aforesaid printed at the heading thereof, which certificate shall recite the provisions of this and the preceding paragraphs of this Article, and such copies may hereafter, except in regard to matters covered by Article 2 (2) of this Order, be exclusively referred to for all purposes connected with the exercise of jurisdiction by His Majesty in Morocco.

(4) No further copies of the Morocco Orders in Council 1889-1929 Consolidated shall be printed and the copies of the Morocco Orders in Council 1889-1933 Consolidated referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be printed as soon as the existing stock of printed copies of Morocco Orders in Council 1889-1929 Consolidated are exhausted.

2.—(1) This Order shall come into force on the 1st January, 1934.

(2) No provision of this Order amending or repealing any provision of any previous Order shall affect the past operation of such previous Order or anything done thereunder.

(3) Printed copies of this Order shall forthwith be affixed and exhibited conspicuously in the public offices of all His Majesty's consular posts in the French and Spanish Zones of Morocco.

(4) Proof shall not be required in any proceeding or matter that the provisions of the preceding paragraph of this Article have been complied with, nor shall any failure to comply with the said provisions in any manner affect the operation of this Order.

3. Article 119 of the Morocco Orders in Council 1889-1929 Consolidated is hereby repealed and the following Article shall be substituted therefor:—

119. (1) A register of persons subject to this Order shall be kept in the office of every Consulate in Morocco.

(2) Every person subject to this Order resident in Morocco shall, in the month of January of each year, be registered at the Consulate of the consular district within which he resides, provided that, if some other Consulate is more easy of access, he may, with the assent of the consular officer, be registered there. A person subject to this Order arriving in Morocco must apply for registration within one month after his arrival; provided that a person who fails to apply for or obtain registration within the time limited by this Article may be registered at any time if he excuses his failure to the satisfaction of the consular officer.

(3) Where a person subject to this Order is in possession of a valid British passport, the consular officer shall, on the first registration of any such person, endorse on the passport without further fee than that provided for in sub-Article (6) hereunder a certificate of registration in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of State. Where any such person applies for the renewal of the registration and produces his passport, the renewal of the registration shall without further fee than that provided for in sub-Article (6) hereunder be endorsed thereon.

(4) Every person who has not previously been registered applying to be registered under this Order shall, unless excused by the consular officer, attend personally for that purpose at the Consulate, but any person applying for the renewal of his registration need not attend personally unless directed by the consular officer so to do, provided that the registration of the wife or wives of a man who is registered under this Order may, if living with him, be effected without their personal attendance being required, and provided also that the registration of minors, being his relatives in whatever degree, living with the head of a family who is registered under this Order, may be effected without their personal attendance being required.

(5) A person registered in any register, established under the provisions of any Order in Council which have been repealed shall be registered under the provisions of this Order, unless the consular officer is satisfied after inquiry that the previous registration was erroneous or that such person is not entitled to registration under the provisions of this Order.

(6) Every person shall, on every registration of himself, and on every renewal of the registration, pay a fee of five shillings or such other fee as the Secretary of State from time to time appoints. The amount of the fee may be uniform for all persons, or may vary according to the position and circumstances of different classes, if the Secretary of State from time to time so directs, but may not in any case exceed one pound.

(7) Where any person applies to be registered, he shall be entitled without a fee to the assistance of the consular officer in the preparation of any affidavit that may be required.

(8) The consular officer may require the production of such evidence that an applicant for registration is entitled to the status of a person subject to this Order as he may see fit, but subject to such directions as may be issued by the Secretary of State.

(9) If any person subject to this Order neglects to obtain registration under the provisions of this Order, he shall not be entitled to be recognised or protected as a British subject or a British protected person, as the case may be, in Morocco, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two pounds for each instance of such failure, but he shall, although not registered, be subject to the jurisdiction of His Majesty's Courts in Morocco.
