

4. Article 124 of the Morocco Orders in Council 1889-1929 Consolidated is hereby repealed and the following article shall be substituted therefor:—

124.—(1) It shall be lawful for the Consul-General and the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court from time to time to make Rules and Forms of Procedure as to all civil or criminal matters, subject to the approval of the Secretary of State.

(2) Until such Rules and Forms have been made, or in relation to matters to which they do not extend, a Court may adopt and use any procedure or forms as were heretofore in use in the Consular Courts in Morocco, or any Regulations or Rules made thereunder and in force immediately before the commencement of this Order, or as are for the time being in use in the Supreme Court of Gibraltar, with any modifications or adaptations which may be necessary.

(3) No proceeding shall be invalidated by any informality, mistake, or omission, so long as, in the opinion of any Court before which any question arises, the essential requisites of law and justice have been complied with.

(4) Provision may, amongst other things, be made by Rules under this Article authorising the Court to grant and enforce search-warrants, and to enforce awards, and to enforce by distress, or by attachment or commitment, judgments or orders of the Court, or payment of any damages, costs, penalties, fines, or forfeitures, and for the sale of things forfeited, and for garnishee process, and for attachments of property in order to compel appearance or submission to the jurisdiction or process of the Court, and authorising the Court to compel, by fine, distress, or recognisance, or in default of security by commitment, the attendance of witnesses before the Court, or before a Colonial or other Court to which a case is sent for trial, and to take and transmit depositions of witnesses for use at trials in the United Kingdom or in a British possession, protectorate or mandated territory, and to prescribe forms of indictment or charge in criminal proceedings; and authorising the Court to cause service to be made of writs and other processes of a civil or commercial character on behalf of other tribunals whether situated in Morocco or not, and if outside Morocco whether situated in His Majesty's dominions, protectorates or mandated territories or in any foreign state in amity with His Majesty.

(5) Provision may also be made by Rules made under this Article to prescribe and enforce the fees to be taken in respect of any proceedings under this Order, not exceeding, as regards any matters provided for by the Act of Parliament 6 George IV c. 87, the fees fixed and allowed from time to time by any Order in Council made under that Act, provided that the scales of all fees prescribed under this Article shall have been sanctioned by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

(6) All fees prescribed by or under any Article of this Order shall be paid in local currency at the market rate of exchange for sterling, provided that such rate shall not be such as to require:—

(a) in the case of French or Moroccan francs, less than 125 francs to the pound sterling:

(b) in the case of Spanish pesetas, less than 26 pesetas to the pound sterling; and, if the market rates of exchange for sterling would require less than the amounts of francs or pesetas aforesaid, the rate of exchange for sterling shall be the said rates.

And the Right Honourable Sir John Allsebrook Simon, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

M. P. A. Hankey.
