

Lieutenant Commanders (under 40 years of age)

A gratuity of £2,500 with an addition of £200 for each complete year's seniority in the rank of Lieutenant Commander.

Lieutenants (confirmed in that rank on or before the 30th June, 1934)

£1,000 for Lieutenants under three years' seniority.

£1,200 for Lieutenants who have attained three years' seniority, and £200 for each complete year's seniority in excess of three years.

The 30th June, 1934, to be taken as the date for reckoning seniority in all cases whether an Officer retires with gratuity before or after that date.

"Officers serving abroad who are allowed to retire under these schemes to be granted full pay up to the date of arrival in England, provided they return by a direct route without delay, but not to be eligible for any extension of full pay in respect of foreign service leave.

"Nothing in this Order shall preclude us from withholding either in whole or in part these special terms from any officer or from retiring any Officer during the currency of these schemes under any other regulations which may be applicable to him.

"Lieutenant Commanders on the Supplementary List and Lieutenant Commanders and Lieutenants promoted from Commissioned Warrant rank or Warrant rank not to be eligible for retirement under these special terms.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 26th day of February, 1934.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 29th day of December, 1933 (C.W. 10449/33), in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Order in Council bearing date the 22nd January, 1920, Your Majesty was pleased to sanction inter alia, revised rates of Command Money for Officers in command of Your Majesty's ships and shore establishments and to authorise the payment of Entertaining Allowance to Officers appointed in command:

"And whereas by Order in Council bearing date the 9th April, 1932, Your Majesty was pleased to sanction the payment to the Engineer Captain appointed in command of the Mechanical Training Establishment at Chatham of Command Money and Entertaining Allowance at the rates of 7s. and 5s. a day respectively:

"And whereas we consider that the Engineer Captain appointed in command of the Royal Naval Engineering College at Keyham should be similarly remunerated:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to authorise the payment to this Officer, with effect from the 19th day of September, 1933, of Command Money and Entertaining Allowance at the daily rates of 7s. and 5s. respectively.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 26th day of February, 1934.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Children and Young Persons Act, 1933, it is, amongst other things, enacted that His Majesty may, by Order in Council, specify as respects the metropolitan police court area the places in which juvenile courts are to sit, and assign as a division to each such place such portion of that area as may be specified in the Order:

And whereas an Order in Council (S.R. & O. 1933, No. 764) was made on the 24th day of July, 1933, as to juvenile courts within the metropolitan police court area:

And whereas by Section 105 of the said Act it is provided that an Order in Council made under the Act may be revoked or varied by any subsequent Order in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to vary the Order of the 24th day of July, 1933, and it is hereby varied accordingly, by the addition of the following Article:—

(5) A juvenile court may sit at any time in case of emergency in the room of the chief magistrate of the metropolitan police courts at Bow Street Police Court to hear cases from any portion of the metropolitan police court area.
