

any British Possession by or with the consent of the Legislature of that Possession, His Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix such dues (in that Act referred to as Colonial Light Dues) to be paid in respect of that Lighthouse, Buoy, or Beacon by the Owner or Master of every Ship which passes the same and derives benefit therefrom as His Majesty may deem reasonable, and may by like Order increase, diminish or repeal such Dues, and those Dues shall from the time mentioned in the Order be leviable throughout His Majesty's Dominions, and further that Colonial Light Dues shall not be levied in any British Possession unless the Legislature of that Possession has, by address to the Crown or by Act or Ordinance duly passed, signified its opinion that the Dues ought to be levied:

And whereas the Great Basses Lighthouse, the Little Basses Lighthouse, and the Minicoy Lighthouse are Lighthouses which have been duly erected under and pursuant to the said Section:

And whereas by Orders in Council, dated respectively the 22nd day of May, 1883, the 9th day of May, 1892, the 29th day of June, 1896, the 10th day of August, 1903, the 21st day of October, 1912, the 6th day of February, 1917, the 14th day of July, 1922, the 6th day of February, 1925, and the 5th day of November, 1926, the Dues leviable in respect of the said Lighthouses for the Classes of Ships therein respectively mentioned were duly fixed:

And whereas by Order in Council, dated the 27th day of October, 1930, His Majesty directed that, as from the 1st day of April, 1931, or from the time of the receipt of notice of that Order, if that be later, by the Officers authorised to collect Light Dues, the Dues thenceforth to be levied should be as follows, that is to say, in respect of the Great Basses Lighthouse and the Little Basses Lighthouse, three sixty-fourths of one penny per ton, and in respect of the Minicoy Lighthouse one sixty-fourth of one penny per ton, of the burden of every ship on every voyage in which she passes or derives benefit from the said Lights respectively:

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty that the said Dues should be altered in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the powers so vested in Him by the above recited provisions, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth by this Order in Council order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The Colonial Light Dues (Great and Little Basses and Minicoy) Order, 1934".

2. As from the 1st day of April, 1934, or from the time of the receipt of this Order, if that be later, by the Officers authorised to collect Light Dues, the Dues thenceforth to be levied shall be as follows, that is to say, in respect of the Great Basses Lighthouse and the Little Basses Lighthouse, three hundredths of one penny per ton, and in respect of the Minicoy Lighthouse, one hundredth of one penny per ton of the burden of every ship on every voyage in which she passes or derives benefit from the said Lights respectively.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 26th day of February, 1934.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Master of the Horse.

Lord Stanley.

Secretary Sir John Simon.

Mr. Normand.

Sir Frederic Maugham.

WHEREAS by the Extradition Acts, 1870 (33-4 V. c. 52), to 1932 (22-3 Geo. V. c. 39), it was amongst other things enacted that, where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, His Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that His Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of His Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions and qualifications as may be deemed expedient:

And whereas a Treaty was signed on the 11th day of January, 1932, between His Majesty and the President of the Republic of Poland for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following:

His Majesty The King of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India,

And the President of the Republic of Poland, Desiring to make provision for the reciprocal extradition of criminals,

Have resolved to conclude a Treaty for that purpose, and to that end have appointed as their plenipotentiaries:

His Majesty The King of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Emperor of India:

for Great Britain and Northern Ireland,

The Right Honourable Sir William Forbes Erskine, G.C.M.G., M.V.O., His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Republic of Poland;

The President of the Republic of Poland:

M. August Zaleski, Minister for Foreign Affairs, and

M. Stefan Siczkowski, Under-Secretary of State to the Ministry of Justice;

Who, having communicated their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed as follows:—

Article 1.

The High Contracting Parties engage to deliver up to each other, under certain circumstances and conditions stated in the present Treaty, those persons who, being accused or convicted of any of the crimes or offences enumerated in Article 3, committed within the jurisdiction of the one Party, shall be found within the territory of the other Party.

Article 2.

For the purposes of the present Treaty—

(i) The territory of His Britannic Majesty shall be deemed to be Great Britain and
