"(4) With the approval of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury and of a Secretary of State to provide that any coins issued by the Government of the Colony of Southern Rhodesia and declared to be legal tender by that Government within that Colony shall be current in the Protectorate, and that the tender of payment of money in the Protectorate, if made in any of those coins, shall, if the coins have not been illegally dealt with, be a legal tender for any amount not exceeding, in the case of silver coins, two pounds sterling in value, and, in the case of cupro-nickel coins and bronze coins one shilling sterling in value;"

4. For removing doubts it is hereby ordered that the Proclamation issued by the Governor under the Order of 1931 as amended by the Order of 1932, and dated the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three shall be deemed to have been lawfully made.

And the Right Honourable Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 26th day of February, 1934.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 48 of the Patents and Designs Acts, 1907 to 1932 (7 E. 7. c. 29, 4-5 G. 5. c. 18, 9-10 G. 5. c. 80, 18-19 G. 5. c. 3 and 22-23 G. 5. c. 32), it is provided that the said Section shall apply only to vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of a foreign state with respect to which His Majesty, by Order in Council, declares that the laws thereof confer corresponding rights with respect to the use of inventions in vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of the United Kingdom when coming into the foreign state or the territorial waters thereof:

And whereas by Section 91 of the said Acts it is provided that the provisions of that Section shall apply only in the case of those foreign states with respect to which His Majesty by Order in Council declares them to be applicable:

And whereas at The Hague on the 6th November, 1925, His Majesty and the heads of certain foreign states having deemed it expedient to make certain modifications in and additions to the International Convention of the 20th March, 1883, for the creation of an International Union for the Protection of Industrial Property, as revised at Brussels on the 14th December, 1900, and at Washington on the 2nd June, 1911, agreed upon a Convention (Treaty series No. 16 (1928)) comprising the said International Convention as revised at Brussels and at Washington with the said modifications and additions, the ratification of which Convention was duly effected by Great Britain and certain other foreign states:

And whereas France has acceded to the said Convention on behalf of the French Possessions Overseas:

And whereas by reason of the accession to the said Convention of the said French Possessions Overseas the laws thereof confer rights with respect to the use of inventions in vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of the United Kingdom when coming into the said French Possessions Overseas or the territorial waters thereof, corresponding to those mentioned in the said Section 48:

And whereas the said Convention is an arrangement of the nature contemplated by the said Section 91:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Him in manner hereinbefore recited and of all other powers in that behalf, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, as follows:—

1. The laws of the French Possessions Overseas confer rights with respect to the use of inventions in vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of the United Kingdom when coming into the said French Possessions Overseas or the territorial waters thereof, corresponding to those mentioned in Section 48 of the Patents and Designs Acts, 1907 to 1932.

2. The provisions of Section 91 of the Patents and Designs Acts, 1907 to 1932, shall be applicable to the French Possessions Overseas.

3. This Order may be cited as The Industrial Property Convention (French Possessions Overseas) Order, 1934.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 26th day of February, 1934.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order of His Majesty in Council bearing date the 14th day of July, 1921, and entitled the Eastern African Court of Appeal Order in Council, 1921 (in this Order referred to as "the Principal Order"), a Court, called His Majesty's Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa (in this Order referred to as "the Court of Appeal"), was constituted for the hearing and determining of appeals from His Majesty's Courts in the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya, the Uganda Protectorate, the Nyasaland Protectorate, the Zanzibar Protectorate and the Tanganyika Territory:

And whereas by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, His Majesty the King has power and jurisdiction in Ethiopia, and His Britannic Majesty's Court for Ethiopia is a British Court in a foreign country:

And whereas it is expedient that provision should be made under section 9 of the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, for the hearing and determining of appeals from His Britannic Majesty's Court for Ethiopia by the Court of Appeal:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by
