If the Provost shall be guilty of grave immorality or gross misconduct in his office, or shall become bankrupt or make a statutory composition or arrangement with his creditors, he may be deprived of his office by the Lord Chancellor, after enquiry held on the petition of a majority of the Fellows present at a meeting specially summoned.

It shall be the duty of the Dean, or, in his absence, the Senior Fellow present in Oxford at the time, on a requisition presented to him by any three of the Fellows, to summon a meeting, giving not less than a fortnight's notice thereof, in order to determine whether such a petition shall be presented."

And whereas by Statute III, 9 (3), it was enacted as follows:—

"(3) The Dean shall always have honorary precedence of the other Fellows."

And whereas by Statute V, 1, 2 and 3, it was enacted as follows:—

"1. The Officers of the College shall be a Dean, a Treasurer and such other Officers as the Provost and Fellows shall at any Stated General Meeting from time to time resolve to be necessary for the business of the College. Such officers may receive such reasonable stipends as the Provost and Fellows shall at any Stated General Meeting determine.

2. The Dean shall be a Fellow of the College and shall be elected for such period as the Provost and Fellows may from time to time determine.

3. In the absence of the Provost the Dean shall act as his Vice-gerent, and while so acting shall have the same powers and duties as the Provost."

And whereas by Statute VI, 10, it was enacted as follows:—

"10. The Provost, Dean and Tutors shall act as an Educational Committee, and shall annually submit to the Provost and Fellows, before the beginning of Michaelmas Term, a report on the results obtained by members of the College in the University examinations of the previous academical year."

And whereas by Statute XI, 2, it was enacted as follows:—

"2. The power which is given by these Statutes to the Dean to act in place of the Provost, and the power of any Officer of the College who may hereafter be authorised by any Statute or Bylaw to act in place of the Provost, shall be deemed to extend to all the acts which the Provost is hereby authorised or directed to do, except the giving consent to any resolution by which the rights or privileges of the Provost may be in any way altered, and to which his consent may be necessary."

And whereas the Provost and Fellows are of opinion that it is desirable to amend the said Statutes in manner hereinafter appearing:

We, the said Provost and Fellows of the said College do hereby in exercise of the powers given to us by the Seventh Section of the said Act alter Statutes II, 7 and 8, III,

9 (3), V, 1, 2 and 3, VI, 10, and XI, 2, by substituting for the word "Dean", wherever it occurs in these Statutes, the word "Vice-Provost."
