

the Patron of the Rectory of the said Parish of Beddington, with the consent of the Reverend Alard Charles de Bourbel, of Elham Saint Mary, in the County of Kent, Clerk in Holy Orders, as the Patron of the Vicarage of the said Parish of Mitcham, and with the consent of John Cator, of Woodbastwick Hall, in the County of Norfolk, Esquire, as the Patron of the Rectory of the said Parish of Carshalton (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said Parish of Beddington, of the said Parish of Mitcham, and of the said Parish of Carshalton, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one Consolidated Chapelry for the said Church of All Saints, North Beddington, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints, North Beddington.'

"THE SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints, North Beddington, comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the Parish of Beddington, in the County of Surrey and in the Diocese of Southwark, which is bounded upon all sides as follows, that is to say, upon the east by the Parish of Croydon, in the said County of Surrey and in the Diocese of Canterbury, upon the north by the Parish of Mitcham, upon the west by the Parish of Carshalton, upon the south by the New Parish of Wallington, all in the said County of Surrey and in the said Diocese of Southwark, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Wallington from the said Parish of Beddington at the point where such boundary diverges south-eastward from following the middle of London Road, and extending thence first northward and then north westward along the middle of London Road for a distance of 27½ chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such road across the South London, Peckham, and Sutton Line of the Southern Railway, and extending thence north eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of 14 chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries Mile Road across such line of railway, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Mile Road for a distance of 60 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Beddington Lane, and extending thence south eastward along the middle of Beddington Lane for a distance of 2 chains or thereabouts to its junction with the roadway leading to the Croydon Borough Fever Hospital, and extending thence eastward along the middle of such roadway for a distance of 25 chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the gateway at the western entrance to such hospital, and extending thence first northward and then north eastward along the walls or fences forming the western and northern boundaries of the premises attached to the said hospital for a distance of 10½ chains or thereabouts to a point at or near the fence forming the south western boundary of the Croydon and Wimbledon Line of the Southern Railway, upon the boundary which divides the said Parish of Beddington from the said Parish of Croydon.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said Parish of Mitcham which is bounded upon the west by the New Parish of Saint Peter, Saint Helier, in the said County of Surrey and in the said Diocese of Southwark, upon part of the south by the said Parish of Carshalton, upon the remaining part of the south and upon the east by the above described portion of the said Parish of Beddington, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north east and upon the north west, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said Parish of Beddington from the said Parish of Mitcham crosses the middle of the said Croydon and Wimbledon Line of the Southern Railway, and extending thence north westward along the middle of such line of railway for a distance of 74 chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries Willow Lane across such line of railway, and extending thence south westward along the middle of Willow Lane for a distance of 26 chains or thereabouts to the point where it reaches the eastern bank of the River Wandle, and extending thence in a straight line due west for a distance of 1½ chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said Parish of Mitcham from the said New Parish of Saint Peter, Saint Helier.

"III. And also all that contiguous portion of the said Parish of Carshalton which is bounded upon the east by the above described portion of the said Parish of Beddington, upon the north by the above described portion of the said Parish of Mitcham, upon the north west and upon part of the west by the said New Parish of Saint Peter, Saint Helier, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the west and upon the south, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Peter, Saint Helier, from the said Parish of Carshalton diverges westward from following the middle of Greenwrythe Lane, and extending thence southward along the middle of Greenwrythe Lane for a distance of 16½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Culvers Avenue, and extending thence north eastward along the middle of Culvers Avenue for a distance of 25 chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries it across the western branch of the River Wandle, and extending thence first southward and then eastward along the middle of such branch of the River Wandle for a distance of 18 chains or thereabouts to its junction with the main stream at a short distance north east of Hack Bridge upon the boundary which divides the said Parish of Carshalton from the said Parish of Beddington."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part
