And whereas His Majesty has ratified the said Convention or acceded thereto in respect of, and the said Convention thereby extends to the following parts of His Majesty's dominions:—

Gambia.

Gilbert and Ellice Islands.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Him, by the Extradition Acts, 1870 to 1906, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Acts shall apply in respect of the above mentioned parts of His Majesty's dominions in the case of the foreign States in the accompanying Schedule in accordance with the Treaties therein described as supplemented by the said Convention.

This Order shall come into operation on the 9th April, 1934, and may be cited as the Extradition (Gambia and Gilbert and Ellice Islands) (White Slave Traffic) Order in Council, 1934.

Provided that where one of the foreign States set forth in the accompanying Schedule has not notified its intention that the said Convention shall come into force in any of its Colonies, Possessions or Consular Judicial Districts by a declaration to that effect deposited in the archives of the Government of the French Republic, the operation of the said Acts shall be and remain suspended in respect of any such Colonies, Possessions or Consular Judicial Districts until such declaration shall have been so deposited, and no longer.

M. P. A. Hankey.
