CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

St. James's Palace, S.W.1,

8th May, 1934.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Medal of the Military Division of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire to the under-mentioned:—

For Gallantry.

Major Douglas Alexander Brett, M.C., 1st Royal Battalion (Light Infantry), 9th Jat Regiment, Indian Army.

At Chittagong, Bengal, at about 5.30 p.m. on the 7th January, 1934, an attack was made by four Hindu youths (terrorists), on a group of 40 to 50 Europeans, including women and children, at the conclusion of a cricket match. The terrorists were armed between them, with one revolver and 7 bombs. The group of Europeans was collected under a shamiana on a hillock. Two of the assailants came out from behind a small bungalow and, running towards the Europeans, threw one bomb each. Both the bombs, fortunately, failed to explode. One of these assailants, who was armed with a revolver, ran on fast towards the Europeans, firing his revolver rapidly as he went. Major Brett, who at the time was unarmed, rushed at this man, grappled with him, and brought him to the ground, holding the man's right arm with the revolver firmly against the ground. Other Europeans came to his assistance, and the assailant was secured.

Major Brett displayed great gallantry and quickness in thus grappling, unarmed, with the terrorist.

Captain Richard Deedes, The King's Shropshire Light Infantry, Adjutant, The Assam-Bengal Railway Battalion, Auxiliary Force, India.

At Chittagong, Bengal, at about 5.30 p.m. on the 7th January, 1934, an attack was made by four Hindu youths (terrorists), on a group of 40 to 50 Europeans, including women and children, at the conclusion of a cricket match. The terrorists were armed, between them, with one revolver and 7 bombs. The group of Europeans was collected under a shamiana on a hillock. Two of the assailants came out from behind a small bungalow and, running towards the Europeans, threw one bomb each. Both bombs, fortunately, failed to explode. Of the two terrorists, one rushed towards the group of Europeans, firing a revolver; the other ran down the slope towards the cricket ground, and across the road where some cars were parked. Captain Deedes, seeing this man run away, dashed off in pursuit, and was close behind the terrorist, when the latter was tripped up by a chauffeur. Captain Deedes fell on the man, and held him down until assistance came.

Captain Deedes acted in a gallant manner in pursuing and tackling the terrorist, who still had a bomb on his person when captured.

LAND DRAINAGE ACT, 1930.

RIVER MEDWAY CATCHMENT BOARD.

Upper Medway and Lower Medway Internal Drainage Districts.

Notice is hereby given that the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries has made an Order under the Land Drainage Act, 1930, confirming a scheme submitted to him by the River Medway Catchment Board under Section 4 (1) (b) of the Act, making provision for the abolition, or abrogation of the powers, of certain Commissioners of Sewers and the constitution of the Upper Medway and Lower Medway Internal Drainage Districts; and that the Order will become final and have effect as an Act of Parliament, unless within thirty days from the date of this Notice a Memorial that the Order shall not become law without confirmation by Parliament is presented to the Minister by some person or body affected by the Order, and having an interest sufficient for the presentation of a Memorial.

A copy of the sealed Order has been deposited, together with a copy of the Scheme, as amended, and the maps referred to in the Order, at the office of the Clerk of the Catchment Board, P. T. Baker, Esquire, 71A, Bank Street, Maidstone, for public inspection for a period of thirty days from the date of this notice, and may be inspected during the ordinary office hours.

CENTRAL ELECTRICITY BOARD (EAST-WOOD LANDS) SPECIAL ORDER, 1934.

ELECTRICITY (SUPPLY) ACTS, 1882 TO 1933.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Electricity Commissioners have submitted to the Minister of Transport for confirmation under the above-mentioned Acts a Special Order made by them to authorise the compulsory acquisition by the Central Electricity Board of easements or other rights for overhead main transmission lines in and over certain lands situate at Eastwood in the County Borough of Southend-on-Sea.

The Minister of Transport proposes to confirm the Order and gives notice that any person affected who may be desirous of objecting to the confirmation of the same must, in accordance with the Electricity (Confirmation of Special Orders) Rules, 1931, do so by memorial addressed to the Minister of Transport written on one side only of foolscap paper and sent by registered post addressed to The Secretary, Ministry of Transport, 6, Whitehall Gardens, London, S.W.1, and posted not later than the 2nd June, 1934. A copy of any such memorial must also be sent in like manner to the Secretary and Solicitor of the Central Electricity Board, Trafalgar Buildings, 1, Charing Cross, London, S.W.1. Such memorial must be sealed or signed by the person objecting or by some responsible and duly authorised person on his behalf, and must state the specific grounds of objection to the Order and the modifications desired.

A copy of the Order as submitted for confirmation and a plan showing the said lands in and over which the said easements or other rights are required and a book of reference to such plan have been deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Essex at the County Offices, Chelmsford, and with the Southend-on-Sea Corporation at the Town Clerk's Office, Town Hall, Southend-on-Sea.

Copies of the Order as submitted for confirmation may be obtained at a price not exceeding 2s. each at the office of the above-mentioned Town Clerk and at the office of the before-mentioned Central Electricity Board.

Dated 5th May, 1934.

LIVERPOOL ELECTRICITY (EXTENSION).

NOTICE is hereby given that the Lord Mayor Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Liverpool (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") whose address is Municipal Buildings, Liverpool, have applied to the Electricity Commissioners under the Electricity (Supply) Acts, 1882 to 1933, for a Special Order (hereinafter referred to as "the Order") for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To extend the area for the supply of electrical energy by the Corporation so as to enable them to provide and distribute electrical energy for all public and private purposes as defined by the Electricity (Supply) Acts, 1882 to 1933, within the parish of Altcar in the Rural District of West Lancashire in the County Palatine of Lancaster (hereinafter referred to as "the added area").

2. To authorise the Corporation to exercise within the added area all powers usually conferred upon distributors of electrical energy.

3. To authorise the Corporation to break up streets and parts of streets not repairable by the local authority and railways within the added area.

4. To make provision as to the maximum prices which may be charged by the Corporation for electricity within the added area.

5. The part of a street outside the added area which the Corporation propose to take special power to break up is:—

In the Urban District of Formby—

Altcar Road from the junction of New Causeway and Altcar Road for a distance of 100 yards in a westerly direction to the boundary between the Parish of Altcar and the Urban District of Formby.

6. To apply to the added area with or without modification all or some of the provisions of the Liverpool Corporation Acts and Orders, 1921 to 1932.

And notice is hereby also given that any authority, company, body or person desirous of bringing before the Electricity Commissioners any objections respecting the application must do so by registered letter addressed to the Secretary, Electricity Commission, Savoy Court, Strand, W.C.2, and despatched on or before the 4th day of June, 1934, and a copy of such objections must also be forwarded to the undermentioned Town Clerk or Parliamentary Agents.

Printed copies of the draft Order as applied for can be obtained at the price of two shillings for each copy at the offices of the undermentioned Town Clerk and Parliamentary Agents and from Mr. W. Mawdsley, Clerk to the Altcar Parish Council, School House, Altcar.

A copy of the draft Order and of the map relating to the application has been deposited for public inspection at the offices of the Clerk of the Peace for the County Palatine of Lancaster at Preston and at the office of the Clerk to the West Lancashire Rural District Council at Derby Street, Ormskirk.

Dated this 1st day of May, 1934.

J. J. WILLS,

Comptroller of the Companies Department.

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It is essential for the business to have a clear and concise record of all income and expenses. This will help in determining the profit or loss of the business and will also be useful for tax purposes.

The second part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all assets and liabilities. This will help in determining the net worth of the business and will also be useful for tax purposes.

The third part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all debts and obligations. This will help in determining the cash flow of the business and will also be useful for tax purposes.

The fourth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all taxes paid. This will help in determining the tax liability of the business and will also be useful for tax purposes.

The fifth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all other financial information. This will help in determining the overall financial health of the business and will also be useful for tax purposes.
