Lisbon, May 29. N. S.

THe Levies for the 5 Regiments of Foot, and 25 Troops of Horse, for which the King of Portugal has lately given out Commissions, go on with good Success; and they continue likewise to fit our several Men of War here and at Oporto. The President Rouille, Ambassador from France, had Audience of the King and Queen the 25th instant; and Complimented them on the Prince their second Son's entering into the 7th year of his Age: And on this occasion they likewise received the Compliments of the other Foreign Minister's residing here.

Messina, June 6. The Muscovite General Szeviet is lately come hither from Maltha, where he was very well received by the Great Master of that Order, who presented him with a Golden-Cross set with Diamonds, to the value of about 6000 Crowns, and sent two Gallies to Convoiy him as far as Cape Passaro. We hear, the Gallies of Maltha are Cruising on the Coast of Barbary.

Rome, June 14. The Marquis of Leganez, late Governor of Milan, arrived here yesterday, and is Lodged at the House of the Spanish Ambassador. He designs in a few days to go to Terracina, where he is to meet the Duke of Medina Celi, Viceroy of Naples. The Congregation of Cardinals, which the Pope appointed some time ago to Examine the Archbishop of Cambray's Book, have had several Meetings about it, but are come as yet to no Resolution thereupon. The Prince of Hesse Darmstadt, who has continued some time in this City, is on his departure for Vienna. The Pope has given Orders, That his Gallies should sail forthwith for the Levant, to joyn the Venetian Fleet.

Genova, June 14. Signior Giovanni Antonio Justiniani, who is appointed Envoy Extraordinary from this Republick to His Majesty of Great Britain, and Signior Agostino Centurione, who goes with the like Character to France, having received their Instructions, left this place last Thursday to repair to their respective Stations.

Venice, June 20. The Discourse of a Peace with the Turks continues; The Senate have sent Powers to their Ambassador at Vienna to Treat about it. The Convoy for the Levant is ready to Sail under the Command of Signior Francisco Moro, who is appointed Governor of Napoli di Malvasia. We have Advice from Tunis, That 4 of the Men of War belonging to that Government sailed thence on the 16th past to joyn the Ottoman Fleet.

Our Advices from Dalmatia say, The Venetian Forces in those Parts have lately had several successful Rencounters with the Turks.

Warsaw, June 20. The Baron of Hoyerbeck being lately arrived here as Envoy from the Elector of Brandenburg, has had a private Audience of the King of Poland: He comes to renew the Antient Alliance between the Crown of Poland and the Elector of Brandenburg. Prince Sapieha, Great Marshal of Lithuania, arrived here yesterday, being accompanied by a great number of the Gentlemen of that Dutchy, and is to wait upon the King this Evening. The Sieur Oginsky is likewise shortly expected, with some of the Chief of his Party, so that it is hoped, an end will be put to the Differences which have of late given so much disturbance to that Country. The Envoy of Moldavia is to have his Audience next week. The Queen-Dowager having obtained leave to go for two years to Rome, intends in a short time to begin her Journey thither. The King's Forces continue their march to Russia, and Commissioners are sent to take care, that the Magazines on those Frontiers be sufficiently provided with all things necessary for their Subsistence. Our Letters from Lemberg say, The Tartars, who brought the last Convoy of Provisions to Caminieck, continue on that Frontier, where they commit great Ravages, and that one of their Parties having lately made an Excursion in those Parts, in which they got a considerable Booty, were in their Retreat fallen upon by some of our Troops, who killed divers of them, and put the rest to flight.

Vienna, June 18. The Prince of Lorraine, Bishop of Osnabrug and Olmutz, went hence the last week to Olmutz, intending after a few days stay at that place to pursue his Journey to Osnabrug. About Two thousand four hundred men of the Troops of Wirtemberg, who served in the Dutchy of Milan, are arrived in Austria, and will be forthwith sent to Hungary, to Recruit the Emperor's Forces. The Danish and Saxon Forces in Hungary are now marching to Poland, to joyn the rest of the German Forces in that King's Service. We have Advice from Prague, That the Czar arrived there the 16th instant in his way hither. Our Letters from Peter Waradin bring an Account, That the Bassa of Romelia, and the Bassa of the Arnantes, are come to Belgrade with between 7 and 8000 men, under their Command; That the Grand Signior is expected there in the beginning of July with the rest of the Army; And that the Vessels which the Turks design to make use
