Civil Service Commission,
June 12, 1934.

Notice is hereby given that the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury and the Civil Service Commissioners have made the following Regulations under the Order in Council of 22nd July, 1920:—

1. All female candidates for any established situation in any of His Majesty's Civil establishments shall be unmarried or widows.

2.—(a) Women appointed to or holding any established situation in any of His Majesty's Civil establishments shall be required to resign their appointments on marriage and to notify their marriage to the Head of their Department immediately on its taking place.

(b) Women resigning on marriage after service of not less than six years prior to their marriage may, at the discretion of the Head of the Department and with the approval of the Treasury, be granted a gratuity of one month's pay for each complete year of established service, but not exceeding on the whole a maximum of twelve months' pay.

3. Provided that upon application by the woman concerned exception may be made to regulations 1 and 2 (a) above in a case where the Head of the Department, the Civil Service Commissioners and the Treasury (in the case of recruitment) and the Head of the Department and the Treasury (in the case of an officer already in an established position) are satisfied after joint consideration that the employment in the Public Service of a married woman is advisable in the light of her special qualifications, or special experience in relation to the duties required of her, or of the special requirements of the Department in which she is serving. Officers appointed or retained under this provision will not be eligible for marriage gratuity.

4. These regulations supersede the corresponding regulations which were published in the London Gazette of 26th August, 1921.

MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ROAD TRAFFIC ACT, 1930,
AND THE LONDON TRAFFIC ACT, 1924.

Notice is hereby given that the Minister of Transport, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by Section 48 of the aforesaid Road Traffic Act and Section 10 of the aforesaid London Traffic Act, has, by virtue of Section 2 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, made the undermentioned Regulations:—

- (1) The Traffic Signs (Pedestrian Crossings) Provisional Regulations, 1934, which came into force on the 7th June, 1934.
- (2) The London Traffic (Pedestrian Crossing Places) Provisional Regulations, 1934, which came into force on the 11th June, 1934.

These Provisional Regulations are to continue in force until Statutory Rules have been made in accordance with the last-mentioned Act. The first-mentioned Regulations prescribe the signs to be used in connection with crossing places for pedestrians within 150 feet of a road junction, appointed after 7th June, 1934, and provide that the Traffic Signs (Size, Colour and Type) Provisional Regulations, 1933, shall cease to apply in so far as any such crossing place is concerned. The last-named Regulations provide for certain obligations being imposed on drivers of vehicles and pedestrians at pedestrian crossing places within the London Traffic Area indicated by the traffic signs prescribed by the Traffic Signs (Pedestrian Crossings) Provisional Regulations, 1934.

Copies of the Provisional Regulations, which constitute the draft of the proposed Statutory Rules, may be purchased at the Ministry of Transport at the undermentioned address (price one penny nett each), and, as soon as they are printed, from H.M. Stationery Office, Adastral House, Kingsway, London, W.C.2; or through any bookseller.

Dated this twelfth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four.

GAS UNDERTAKINGS ACTS, 1920 AND 1929.

NOTICE is hereby given of an Application to the Board of Trade to be made by the Dursley Gas Light & Coke Company Limited, of Long Street, Dursley, Gloucestershire, for a Special Order under the Gas Undertakings Acts 1920 and 1929, for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To extend the limits of the Company for the supply of Gas to include the parishes of Slimbridge and Coaley, in the Rural District of Dursley, in the County of Gloucester.

2. To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would impede or interfere with its purposes and confer other rights and privileges.

3. To incorporate with the Order with or without modification the provisions of the Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847, and the Gas Works Clauses Act, 1871.

Any local or other public authority, company or person desiring to bring before the Board of Trade any objection to the Draft Order may do so by registered letter addressed to the Director of Gas Administration, Board of Trade, Great George Street, London, S.W.1, and despatched on or before the 21st day of July, 1934.

Any such objection shall state:—(a) The specific grounds of objection; and (b) The omissions, additions or modifications asked for.

A copy of the objection must at the same time be forwarded to the undermentioned.

A copy of the draft Special Order and a map showing the existing limits of supply of gas and the proposed additional limits of supply have been deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Gloucester at his Office at Gloucester, and at the offices of the Undertakers at Long Street, Dursley, Gloucestershire.

Printed copies of the draft Special Order may be obtained at the offices of the Undertakers as aforesaid, at the price of one shilling per copy.

Dated this 9th day of June, 1934.

A. The name of the new Company to be the same as, or similar to, that of the old Company, and the nominal capital thereof shall be £20,000, divided into 20,000 Ordinary shares of £1 each; the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the new Company to be subject to the approval of the Liquidator.

B. As part of the consideration for the said sale, the new Company shall pay, satisfy and discharge all the debts and liabilities of this Company, and also the expense of and incidental to the winding-up of the same, and to the incorporation of the new Company, and the sale and transfer by the Liquidator of the assets and liabilities of this Company to the new Company.

C. As further part of the consideration for the said sale and transfer, the new Company shall allot to the shareholders of the old Company, as being nominees of the Liquidator, 10,000 Ordinary shares of £1 each in the new Company, and duly registered in the books as fully paid, in the proportion of one such Ordinary share to each Preference share and one such Ordinary share to each three Ordinary shares held by the proprietors respectively in the old Company.

D. That the Liquidator be and is hereby authorised to continue the business of the Company pending the transfer thereof to the new Company.

E. That the Liquidator be and is hereby authorised to enter into such further contracts and to execute all such instruments, and to effect such compromises as may be necessary or desirable for the carrying into effect the above resolutions.

F. The Company shall accept the Company's title to the premises to be sold."

No. 00332 of 1934.

In the Matter of the WOODLAND BUILDINGS INVESTMENT COMPANY Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies Act, 1929.

NOTICE is hereby given that a petition was, on the 23rd May, 1934, presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice by the above named Company to confirm an alteration of the provisions of the Memorandum of Association with respect to the Company's objects proposed to be effected by a Special Resolution passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company held on the 14th day of May, 1934, which alteration is for the purpose of enlarging the local area of the Company's operations enabling it to carry on its business more efficiently, and also to carry on certain businesses which under existing circumstances may conveniently and advantageously be combined with the business of the Company, and in particular, the businesses of public work contractors, builders and decorators. A copy of the Memorandum of Association showing the alterations proposed to be effected by the said Special Resolution will be sent, on request, to any person interested in the Company's assets whether as a creditor (secured or unsecured), Shareholder or otherwise, and such a print may be inspected by any such person at the registered office of the Company, at 8, Low Pavement, Nottingham, or at the office of Messrs. Turner, Barrows & Moss or Messrs. Dalston Sons & Elliman, at the addresses mentioned below, on any weekday prior to the 25th day of June, 1934, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. And notice is further given that the said petition is directed to be heard before The Honourable Mr. Justice Crossman, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, on Monday the 25th day of June, 1934, when any person interested in the assets of the Company, whether as a creditor (secured or unsecured), Shareholder or otherwise, desirous of opposing the making of an Order confirming such alteration may appear in person or by Counsel for the purpose. Any such person is required to give notice, in writing, of intention so to appear, stating the grounds of objection to the undersigned, on or before the 21st June, 1934. A copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the undersigned.—Dated the 11th day of June, 1934.
