At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of June, 1934.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Reverend Edward Arthur, Lord Bishop of Ripon, has, under Section 26 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, made a Representation to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Lord Archbishop of York, in the following terms:—

"We, The Right Reverend Edward Arthur by Divine Permission Lord Bishop of Ripon, do in pursuance of the twenty-sixth section of the Act of Parliament of the 1st and 2nd years of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 106, hereby represent to Your Grace as follows:—

"That there is in the County of York and in our Diocese of Ripon the Vicarage and Parish of Hawes the boundaries of which are well known and defined and which include an area coloured red on the plan attached hereto.

"That there is also in the said County and our said Diocese the Vicarage and Parish of Hardraw-cum-Lunds the boundaries of which are well known and defined and which said Parish immediately adjoins the said Parish of Hawes.

"That according to the last census the population of the said Parish of Hawes inclusive of the said area coloured red on the said plan is 1,430 persons of whom 82 or thereabouts are resident in the said area coloured red and also according to the last census the population of the said Parish of Hardraw-cum-Lunds is 330 persons.

"That the annual value of the said benefice of Hawes is £399 0s. 0d. and of the said benefice of Hardraw-cum-Lunds £413 0s. 0d. or thereabouts.

"That the Patronage of the said Vicarage and Parish Church of Hawes belongs to the Reverend John Harold McCubbin, Vicar of Aysgarth, in right of his said Vicarage and the said benefice of Hardraw-cum-Lunds is in the alternate Patronage of the said Reverend John Harold McCubbin in right of his said Vicarage of Aysgarth and Simon Hunter Willan together with Christopher Moor Fawcett and John Ralph Fawcett the Executors of the Will of the late Richard Fawcett.

"That the Reverend James Llewellyn Grice Hill is the present Vicar of Hawes and the Reverend John Howard Preston is the present Vicar of Hardraw-cum-Lunds.

"That the said area coloured red on the said plan and proposed by the Scheme hereinafter set forth to be transferred from the said Parish of Hawes to the said Parish of Hardraw-cum-Lunds is at a distance of four miles or thereabouts from the Parish Church of Hawes and is only a distance of six hundred yards or thereabouts from the Church of Lunds situate within the said Parish of Hardraw-cum-Lunds and it would therefore be more convenient for the inhabitants of the said area coloured red on the said plan to attend Divine Service at the Church of Lunds than at the Parish Church of Hawes.

"That it appears to us that the said area coloured red on the said plan may under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the 1st and 2nd years of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 106, and of the 2nd and 3rd years of Her said late Majesty's reign, Chapter 49, be advantageously separated from the said Vicarage and Parish Church of Hawes and be annexed for ecclesiastical purposes to the said Vicarage and Parish Church of Hardraw-cum-Lunds.

"That the Patrons and Incumbents of the said benefices of Hawes and Hardraw-cum-Lunds have given their consent to the Scheme hereinafter proposed.

"That pursuant to the direction contained in the first mentioned Act of Parliament we the said Lord Bishop have drawn up a Scheme in writing appended to this Representation describing the mode in which it appears to us that the alterations above proposed may be best effected with justice to all parties concerned."

And whereas the said Scheme drawn up by the said Bishop and the Consents referred to in the said Representation are as follows:—

"THE SCHEME

"It is hereby proposed and recommended:—

"1. That such portion of the Parish of Hawes coloured red on the plan attached hereto shall be separated from that Parish and be annexed for ecclesiastical purposes to the Parish of Hardraw-cum-Lunds.

"2. That the inhabitants of the said portion of the Parish of Hawes so coloured and proposed to be separated as aforesaid shall be exonerated from all liability to repair the Parish Church of Hawes and from all ecclesiastical dues, duties, offices and services chargeable on the Parishioners of the said Parish of Hawes and shall become liable, subject to the Compulsory Church Rates Abolition Act, 1868, to the repair of the Parish Churches of Hardraw-cum-Lunds and all other ecclesiastical dues, duties, offices and services chargeable upon the Parishioners of the said Parish of Hardraw-cum-Lunds.

"3. That the inhabitants of the said portion coloured red on the plan as aforesaid shall no longer be entitled to be seated in the Parish Church of Hawes nor to any parochial rights or privileges of baptism, marriage, churching, burial or other offices in the Parish Church of Hawes, but shall be entitled to all such rights and privileges at the said Parish Churches of Hardraw-cum-Lunds.

"4. That the Incumbent of the said Parish of Hardraw-cum-Lunds shall have exclusive cure of souls within that portion of the said Parish of Hawes so separated and annexed as aforesaid and shall be entitled to receive and enjoy all ecclesiastical dues offerings and emoluments arising therefrom according to the use and custom of the said Parish of Hardraw-cum-Lunds and usually payable to the Incumbent of a Benefice.

"5. That there shall be no change in the existing Patronages or Endowments of either of the said Benefices by reason of the proposals herein contained.

"Given under the hand of the said Lord Bishop this twenty-first day of April, 1934.

"ARTHUR RIPON.

"In testimony whereof we the said John Harold McCubbin, Simon Hunter Willan, Christopher Moor Fawcett, John Ralph Fawcett, John Howard Preston and James Llewellyn Grice Hill have hereunto set our hands this twenty-first day of April, 1934.

Whitehall, July 9th, 1934.

The following Address was presented to The KING on the occasion of the opening of the new buildings of The Chartered Insurance Institute by His Majesty on the 28th June, 1934:—

THE PRESIDENT OF THE CHARTERED INSURANCE INSTITUTE.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please Your Majesty:—

The members of The Chartered Insurance Institute gratefully acknowledge the signal honour which has been conferred upon them by Your Majesty in graciously consenting to open this building, and by Her Majesty The Queen, in being present with Your Majesty.

The aims of the Institute may broadly be described as educational, benevolent and social.

From the day of its inception in Manchester in the year 1873, the movement has steadily advanced in strength and usefulness. To-day The Chartered Insurance Institute comprises sixty-three Centres in Great Britain and Ireland with eleven Affiliated Institutes located in Your Majesty's Dominions overseas, and its membership exceeds twenty-three thousand.

The possession of a home worthy of the objects for which the Institute exists has long been the desire of the members, and the building which Your Majesties have graced by your presence represents the fulfilment of that ambition.

Insurance—by means of which the burdens of the few are shared by the many—is an integral part of the commercial and social life of all nations. In this essential service, British insurance organisations, with funds aggregating upwards of 1,500 millions of pounds, are pre-eminent. British insurance representatives are to be found in every quarter of the globe, helping to forge those bonds of friendship so desirable in the interests of international peace and goodwill.

Science and invention are constantly at work changing the texture of our industrial, commercial and social systems. These changes are reflected in the business of insurance, which tends to become ever more complex, and to make increasing demands upon the skill and knowledge of those engaged therein. The promotion of the efficiency, progress and general development of those employed in insurance is the primary purpose of The Chartered Insurance Institute—a purpose of which Your Majesty graciously expressed approval by the grant of a Royal Charter to the Institute in the second year of your Reign.

Your Majesty's continued interest is evidenced by your presence on this memorable occasion with Her Majesty The Queen in the new home of The Chartered Insurance Institute.

To which address His Majesty was pleased to return the following Gracious Answer:—

I am pleased to come here to-day, accompanied by The Queen, to open the new home of the Chartered Insurance Institute and I thank you for the kind words of your address.

Insurance is a social, economic and commercial service of world-wide importance which is now, as you say, indispensable to the welfare of all civilised countries; for it affords protection against those contingencies which even the most reckless cannot ignore and the most far-seeing are often powerless to avert.

Insurance may well be described as one of the leading industries in the Home Market, while at the same time it makes an appreciable contribution to our invisible exports. This country has taken a leading part in its development throughout the world in the past two centuries, and I see on the walls of this fine Conference Hall the emblems of Companies whose names are well-known and respected in every quarter of the globe.

The growing complexity of insurance, to which you have referred, calls for ever greater precision of method, and to apply it with success a high order of business and intellectual qualifications is required. The outstanding position of Great Britain in this field to-day has been attained by the efforts of men of character and foresight, and it is in order to train such men that the Institute exists.

It is right that your Institute should be housed in a worthy building and the greater facilities that will be afforded to your Members in this new home, so fittingly built in the City of London, will, I am sure, be of the greatest assistance in furthering your objects.

Insurance education has been in the forefront of your activities. But the general welfare of your members has not been neglected, and I have learned with pleasure of the great charitable organisations for the benefit of those engaged in the work of insurance, which your Institute has created.

I have much pleasure in declaring open this building of The Chartered Insurance Institute and I congratulate its Members upon the possession of their new and dignified home.
