

Foley, Bishop of London, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of West Drayton which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parish of West Drayton:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Eva Elizabeth De Burgh (in testimony whereof she has signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of West Drayton now vested in her, the said Eva Elizabeth De Burgh as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, and his successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, and by his successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of London.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of December, 1934.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 13th day of December, 1934, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Whitehaven, Christ Church, and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Whitehaven, Holy Trinity, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Cumberland and in the Diocese of Carlisle:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Herbert, Bishop of Carlisle, pursuant to the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Whitehaven, Christ Church, and Whitehaven, Holy Trinity, duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Carlisle and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Carlisle signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices which Scheme is based upon the terms recommended in the said Report but with the assent of the said Bishop of Carlisle embodies certain modifications thereof:

"And whereas the said Benefice of Whitehaven, Christ Church, is now full the Reverend George Wilfrid Arnold being the present Incumbent thereof and the said Benefice of Whitehaven, Holy Trinity, is at present vacant:

"And whereas it appears to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, that the total revenue of the Benefices hereinafter recommended and proposed to be constituted an United Benefice which would remain after making such provision as is hereinafter recommended and proposed for the payment of a Curate to assist the Incumbent of such United Benefice, would be more than is required to form a competent provision for the United Benefice and it is desirable that the surplus revenue should be applied as hereinafter recommended and proposed for the benefit of a proposed Benefice in the said Diocese of Carlisle for which no provision or no competent provision at present exists:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Herbert, Bishop of Carlisle (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme), and with the consent of the said George Wilfrid Arnold (testified by his signing this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Whitehaven, Christ Church, and the said Benefice of Whitehaven, Holy Trinity, shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Whitehaven, Holy Trinity with Christ Church' and that the Parishes of the said Benefices shall also be united into one Parish for ecclesiastical purposes and for such other purposes as in the said Measure provided.
