Whitehall, February 20, 1935.

The KING has been pleased to issue a Commission under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual to the following effect:—

GEORGE R.I.

GEORGE THE FIFTH, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas KING, Defender of the Faith, to

Our Right Trusty and Well-beloved Counsellor Sir John Eldon Bankes, Knight Grand Cross of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath;

Our Trusty and Well-beloved:—

Sir Philip Hamilton Gibbs, Knight Commander of Our Most Excellent Order of the British Empire;

Rachel Eleanor Crowdy, Dame Commander of Our Most Excellent Order of the British Empire;

Sir Thomas William Allen, Knight;

Sir Kenneth Lee, Knight, Doctor of Laws;

Harold Cooke Gutteridge, Esquire, one of Our Counsel learned in the Law, Doctor of Laws, Master of Arts; and

John Alfred Spender, Esquire,

Greeting!

Whereas we have deemed it expedient that a Commission should forthwith issue

(1) To consider and report upon the practicability and desirability (both from the national and international point of view) of the adoption (a) by the United Kingdom alone, (b) by the United Kingdom in conjunction with the other countries of the world, of a prohibition of private manufacture of and trade in arms and munitions of war, and the institution of a State monopoly of such manufacture and trade.

(2) To consider and report whether there are any steps which can usefully be taken to remove or minimize the kinds of objections to which private manufacture is stated in Article 8 (5) of the Covenant of the League of Nations to be open.

(3) To examine the present arrangements in force in the United Kingdom relative to the control of the export trade in arms and munitions of war, and to report whether these arrangements require revision, and, if so, in what directions.

Now know ye that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your knowledge and ability, have authorized and appointed and do by these Presents authorize and appoint you the said
