Civil Service Commission,
May 3, 1935.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that, on the application of the Head of the Department and with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the following situation under the Fishery Board for Scotland has been added to the Schedule appended to the Order in Council of the 22nd July, 1920, viz. :—

Marine Superintendent.

Civil Service Commission,
May 3, 1935.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz. :—

REGULATIONS FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF MALE ASSISTANT SURVEYORS IN THE CIVIL ENGINEER-IN-CHIEF'S DEPARTMENT OF THE ADMIRALTY AND IN THE WORKS AND BUILDINGS DIRECTORATE OF THE AIR MINISTRY.

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration from time to time. Competitions do not take place at fixed intervals, but are held as occasion arises.

1. Candidates must have attained the age of 22 and must not have attained the age of 28 on a date to be fixed in respect of the competition in which they are to take part. Candidates who have served or are serving in the Army, Navy or Air Force may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding five years during which they have so served.

2. Every candidate must be a natural-born British subject, the child of a person who is or was at the time of death a British subject; provided that exception may be made in the case of natural-born British subjects who have satisfactorily completed a period of not less than five years' service on full pay in His Majesty's Regular Forces.

Provided also that if the Civil Service Commissioners are satisfied in the case of any candidate who is a British subject but does not fulfil all the requirements of the rule as to nationality and descent, that the candidate is so closely connected by ancestry and upbringing with His Majesty's dominions that an exception may properly be made to that rule, they may accept such candidate as eligible provided that this discretion shall not be exercisable unless (a) the father or the paternal grandfather of the candidate was a natural-born British subject, and (b) neither the father nor the paternal grandfather had acquired any other nationality by naturalisation or by any other voluntary and formal act.

The consent of the authorities of the Department concerned will be required before the child of a naturalised British subject can be appointed either to the Admiralty or to the Air Ministry.

3. Persons holding situations in the Civil Service must obtain the permission of the authorities of their department to apply for appointment.

No person actually serving in the Army, Navy or Air Force will be eligible for consideration unless he produces, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to apply for appointment, dated before his appearance before the Selection Board, and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued.

Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

4. Candidates must be prepared to serve at home or abroad, and candidates selected for the Air Ministry must be prepared to undertake journeys by air in connection with the execution of their duties as may be directed.

5. The Civil Service Commissioners will take such steps as they think most appropriate to make known the existence of any vacancy or vacancies which it is desired to fill on any one occasion.

6. Applications shall be addressed to the Civil Service Commission on a form to be obtained from that Office. Candidates who appear to be prima facie qualified under the regulations will be submitted to a written examination in the following subjects, and will be required to pay a fee of £4 before the examination :—

(1) Writing a report on some subject connected with the profession.

(2) Taking out quantities from drawings, abstracting and getting into bill, and measurement of works executed. Reading and interpreting drawings.

(3) Estimating and valuing, including analysis of prices.

(4) Specifications and contracts—

(a) For works.

(b) For supply of material, including use and properties of materials.

(5) Chain surveying and levelling.

The candidate will be required to qualify in each of the above subjects.

Candidates who are Professional Associates of the Chartered Surveyors' Institution, having qualified under Sub-Division III (IA Quantities-Typical), or who have passed the examinations prescribed for such qualification, will be exempted from the written examination. A candidate so exempted will be required to pay a fee of £4 before admission to interview by the Selection Board.

7. Candidates who pass the examination or are exempted therefrom will be summoned to
