I. SERGE BENTLEY, of 79, Palace Court, London, W.2, Engineer, heretofore called and known by the name of Serge Berlin, hereby give notice that on the 20th day of May, 1935, I renounced and abandoned the use of my said surname of Berlin and assumed in lieu thereof the surname of Bentley; and further that such change of name is evidenced by a deed dated the 20th day of May, 1935, duly executed by me and attested, and enrolled in the Enrolment Department of the Central Office of the Royal Courts of Justice on the 23rd day of May, 1935.—Dated the 28th day of May, 1935.

(154) S. BENTLEY, late Berlin.

I. WALWYN STEARMAN, of Petit Tor, Badminton Road, Downend, in the county of Gloucester, whose birth was registered under the name of Wilfred Lionel Gould, hereby give notice that on the 22nd day of May, 1935, I renounced and abandoned the use of my said name of Wilfred Lionel Gould and assumed in lieu thereof the name of Walwyn Stearman; and further that such change of name is evidenced by a deed dated the twenty-second day of May, 1935, duly executed by me and attested, and that such deed poll was enrolled in the Central Office of the Royal Courts of Justice on the 24th day of May, 1935.—Dated this 27th day of May, 1935.

WALWYN STEARMAN, formerly Wilfred (109) Lionel Gould.

I. HELEN MARCELLE HARRISON, of 33, Heathurst Road, Sanderstead, Surrey, Femme Sole, a natural born British subject, heretofore called and known by the name of Helen Marcelle Barnes, hereby give notice that I have renounced and abandoned the name of Helen Marcelle Barnes and that I have assumed and intend henceforth on all occasions whatsoever and at all times to sign and use and to be called and known by the name of Helen Marcelle Harrison in lieu of and in substitution for my former name of Helen Marcelle Barnes; and I also hereby give notice that such change of name is formally declared and evidenced by a deed poll under my hand and seal dated the twentieth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, duly executed and attested, and that such deed poll was enrolled in the Central Office of the Supreme Court of Judicature on the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five.—Dated this 10th day of May, 1935.

H. M. HARRISON, formerly H. M. Barnes. (187)

I. HERBERT NOON, of 10, Napier Street, in the city of Leicester, Carpenter, a British subject, heretofore called and known by the name of Herbert Carter, hereby give public notice, that on the ninth day of May, 1935, I formally and absolutely renounced, relinquished and abandoned the use of my said surname of Carter, and then assumed and adopted, and determined thenceforth on all occasions whatsoever to use and subscribe the name of Noon instead of the said name of Carter; and I give further notice, that by a deed poll dated the ninth day of May, 1935, duly executed and attested, and enrolled in the Central Office of the Supreme Court on the 27th day of May, 1935, I formally and absolutely renounced and abandoned the said surname of Carter, and declared that I had assumed and adopted, and intended thenceforth upon all occasions whatsoever to use and subscribe the name of Noon instead of Carter, and so as to be at all times thereafter called, known and described by the name of Herbert Noon exclusively.—Dated the 28th day of May, 1935.

HERBERT NOON.

TOM DIXON, Deceased.

PURSUANT to Order dated 2nd June, 1930, of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, in Re Tom Dixon, deceased, Mead v. Arthur, 1930 D. 868, whereby amongst other accounts and enquiries the following enquiry was directed, namely:—

"An enquiry who upon the death of the testator became beneficially entitled to any personal estate of his as to which he died intestate and if more than one in what shares and proportions and whether any of such persons are since dead and if so when they died and who are their legal personal representatives."

And pursuant to another Order of the same Division dated 29th October, 1934, in Re Tom Dixon's Settled Estates, Mead v. Arthur, 1934 D. No. 1050, the following enquiry was directed, namely:—

"An enquiry who upon the death of Tom Dixon became beneficially entitled to any real estate of his as to which he died intestate and if more than one for what estates and interests and whether any such persons are since dead and if so when they died and who by devise descent or otherwise have become entitled to the real estate to which such persons became so entitled."

Notice is hereby given that all persons claiming to be entitled under the said enquiries or either of them are, on or before the 12th October, 1935, to send by post prepaid to Charles Tufnell Dyne Burchell, Esquire, a partner in the firm of Messrs. Burchells, 5, The Sanctuary, Westminster, S.W.1, Solicitors, their full Christian and surnames, addresses and descriptions, and full particulars of their claims, or in default thereof they will be excluded from the benefit of the said Orders, unless the Court or Judge on application otherwise orders. Wednesday, the 23rd October, 1935, at 12 o'clock noon, is the time appointed for adjudication upon the claims, before Master Ridsdale, at the Chambers of the Judge, Room 231, Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London.

A claimant not residing in England or Wales must send, with particulars of his claim, the name and address of a person in England or Wales to whom notices to the claimant can be sent.

NOTE.—The testator Tom Dixon was a Wholesale Stationer and Jute Merchant, and died 17th October, 1906, his Father, William Dixon, who died 6th January, 1885, is alleged to have married twice and to have had three children (1) William, (2) Frank, and (3) Lucy Ann (afterwards Lamont) by his first Wife, but only one child, namely, the testator, by his second Wife, whose maiden name was Margaret Sutcliffe; the first marriage has not been proved. Lucy Ann Lamont died 19th November, 1874. John William Lamont, her Son, died 20th August, 1890. Margaret Sutcliffe was a Daughter of James Sutcliffe and Alice Crabtree, who married on the 17th February, 1803, at Burnley, Lancs, and had five other children, namely:—(1) Susan, (2) Eliza, afterwards Hattersley, (3) Ann, (4) Henry, who married Ann
