

SUPERANNUATION ACT, 1935
(25 Geo. 5. c. 23).

Notice is hereby given under the Rules Publication Act, 1893, that it is proposed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury after the expiration of at least forty days from this date, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon Them by Section 2 of the Superannuation Act, 1935, and of every other power enabling Them in that behalf to make rules for securing that, in such circumstances and subject to such conditions as to proof of good health and other matters as may be specified in the rules, a retiring officer, that is to say, a person of such a class as may be so specified—

(a) who, being a civil servant, retires from the service, otherwise than on the ground of ill-health, not earlier than three months after the commencement of the Superannuation Act, 1935, or

(b) who, having served in the permanent civil service of the State at some time later than three months after the commencement of the Superannuation Act, 1935, retires from some other employment otherwise than on the ground of ill-health, in such circumstances as qualify him for the grant of a superannuation allowance in respect of his service in the civil service, shall be allowed to surrender, as from the date of his retirement, in return for the benefits of the rules, such part, not exceeding one-third, of any annual superannuation, compensation or retiring allowance which the Treasury may grant to him under the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1935, as may be specified in the rules, and for enabling the Treasury to grant either to the wife or husband, as the case may be, or to a dependant, of the retiring officer a pension of such value, as, according to tables to be prepared from time to time by the Government Actuary, is actuarially equivalent, at the said date, to the value of that part of the said annual allowance which is surrendered.

Copies of the Draft Rules may be obtained from H.M. Stationery Office at the following addresses:—Adastral House, Kingsway, London, W.C.2; 120, George Street, Edinburgh 2; York Street, Manchester 1; 1, St. Andrew's Crescent, Cardiff; 80, Chichester Street, Belfast; or through any bookseller.
