

shall be punishable under the provisions of the Principal Order.

16.—(1) All fees payable under the provisions of this Order shall be a debt due to His Majesty and shall bear interest as from 3 months after the date of the death at such rate as may be prescribed by Rules of Court made under the Principal Order.

(2) All such fees as aforesaid shall be payable by the personal representative but he shall not be liable for any fees in excess of the assets which he has received as personal representative, or might but for his own neglect or default, have received.

(3) Where the personal representative fails to pay any additional fees payable under Article 13 of this Order, being fees for which he is liable, or fails to pay any fees which he has undertaken to pay under Article 8 of this Order, he shall be guilty of a contempt of Court, and the Court may, in addition to any penalty which it may impose under the provisions of the Principal Order in respect of the contempt, order him personally to pay the said fees.

17. Where any person takes possession of, or intermeddles with, any part of the estate of a deceased person, he shall be liable, in addition to any other person who may be liable under the foregoing provisions of this Order, to pay such fees as would be payable in respect of that part of the estate if he had been granted representation in respect thereof:

Provided that—

(a) no fees shall by virtue of this provision be payable twice over;

(b) nothing herein shall affect the liability under the provisions of the Principal Order of any person taking possession of, or intermeddling with, any property as aforesaid to a penalty or to the payment of double fees.

18. Where the Court has power to reseal a grant of probate or letters of administration or confirmation issued by a Court of Probate in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, or in any British possession to which the Colonial Probates Act, 1892 (55 & 56 Vict. c. 6), for the time being extends, the provisions of this Order shall apply, and fees shall be paid on such resealing as if it were an application for and the issue of representation under this Order.

19.—(1) The Foreign Jurisdiction (Probates) Order in Council, 1908 (S.R. & O. 1908, No. 779, p. 384), is hereby repealed, but this repeal shall not affect the past operation of that Order or any appointment made, or any right, title obligation or liability incurred, or the validity or invalidity of anything done or suffered under that Order, before the making of this order or the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any liability accrued under that Order or any Regulation made thereunder.

(2) Notwithstanding the repeal of the Order aforesaid, all Rules approved or confirmed by or under that Order shall continue and be as if this Order had not been made, and the same may be revoked, altered or otherwise dealt with under this Order, as if they had been made under this Order.

(3) Civil proceedings begun under the Order in Council repealed by this Order, and pending at the time when this Order comes into operation shall, from and after that time, be regulated by the provisions of this Order, as far as the nature and circumstances of each case admits.
