

Northern Ireland, on Tuesday, the Twenty-sixth day of November next ensuing the date hereof: In order, therefore, to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament, We do, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at the Palace of Holyroodhouse, in Edinburgh, on Friday the Fifteenth day of November next at Twelve o'clock Noon, to nominate and choose the Sixteen Peers to sit and vote in the House of Peers in the said ensuing Parliament by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the Proxies of such as shall be absent (such Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in Writing duly signed before Witnesses, and both the Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to Law); and the Lord Clerk Register, or in the event of a vacancy in the Office of Lord Clerk Register or in his absence from any cause, the Principal Clerk of the Session, or in the event of a vacancy in that Office or in his absence from any cause, such person as may be designated for the purpose by one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, is hereby required to attend such Meeting, and to take the Votes of the said Peers, and immediately after such Election made and duly examined to certify the Names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and to sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the Electors, and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain: And We do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly command and require the Lord Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said City, to take especial care to preserve the Peace thereof during the time of the said Election, and to prevent all manner of Riots, Tumults, Disorders, and Violence whatsoever: And We strictly charge and command that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns of Scotland, Ten Days at least before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such Election.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this Twenty-fifth day of October, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, and in the Twenty-sixth year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of October, 1935.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS MAJESTY, having been this day pleased by His Royal Proclamation to dissolve the present Parliament and to declare the calling of another, is hereby further pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and the Governor of Northern Ireland, do respectively, upon notice of this His Majesty's Order, forthwith cause writs to be issued in due form and according to law for the calling of a new Parliament, to meet at the City of Westminster on Tuesday, the twenty-sixth day of November next; which writs are to be returnable in due course of law.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of October, 1935.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the respective Convocations of the Provinces of Canterbury and York be forthwith dissolved: And the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain is to cause Writs to be prepared and issued in the usual manner for that purpose.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of October, 1935.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty, and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain do, upon notice of this His Majesty's Order, forthwith cause Writs to be issued in due form of Law, for electing new Members of the Convocations of the Clergy, which Writs are to be returnable on Wednesday, the 22nd day of January, 1936.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of October, 1935.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Treaty of Peace Act, 1919, it is provided that His Majesty may make such Orders in Council and do such things as appear to him to be necessary for carrying out the Treaty of Peace signed at Versailles on the twenty-eighth day of June, nineteen hundred and nineteen, and for giving effect to any of the provisions of the said Treaty:

And whereas it is also provided by the said Act that any Order in Council made thereunder may provide for the imposition by summary process or otherwise of penalties in respect of breaches of the provisions thereof:

And whereas it is expedient for the purpose of carrying out the said Treaty, and for giving effect to the Covenant of the League of Nations contained in Part I thereof, to make the provisions hereinafter contained:
