6. The auxiliary language in Section A will be tested by means of translation from the language. The following languages may be offered: French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch, Norwegian, Swedish, Danish, Russian, Latin, Ancient Greek.

No candidate may offer any language twice in the examination.

Only a candidate who takes two modern languages in Section B may offer Latin or Ancient Greek as an auxiliary language.

7. No candidate who offers Roman or Greek Civilization may also offer European History, Period 1.

8. In subjects 49 to 64 the civilization subject associated with a language can only be taken by candidates who offer the language itself for examination in Section B.

9. A candidate desiring to offer subject 23 or any of the subjects 30 to 42 must produce evidence satisfactory to the Commissioners of laboratory training in an institution of university rank. For Astronomy (28), Geography (43), the Physical Anthropology branch of Special Anthropology (45), and Agriculture (46), other equivalent training will be required. There will be no laboratory test as part of the examination.

10. From the marks assigned to candidates in each subject such deduction will be made as the Civil Service Commissioners may deem necessary in order to secure that no credit be allowed for merely superficial knowledge.

11. Moreover, candidates whose handwriting is not easily legible will suffer a further deduction of marks on that account.

12. Application for permission to attend one of these examinations must be made in the writing of the candidate, at such times and in such manner as may be fixed by the Commissioners.

13. A fee of £2 will be required from every applicant for permission to attend an examination; this fee is not returnable in any circumstances. A further fee of £6, being the balance of the prescribed fee of £8, will be required from every candidate attending such examination.

14. Out of the list resulting from each examination will be filled (provided there be candidates duly qualified):—

(a) All the vacancies in the Junior Grade of the Administrative Class which may have been reported to the Civil Service Commissioners up to the date of the announcement of the result of the examination;

(b) Any additional vacancies occurring within six months from the date of the announcement of the result of the examination, which the Head of the Department may desire to have so filled.

The assignment by the Civil Service Commissioners of successful candidates will be made with due regard to the requirements of the situation to be filled. Subject to this condition, candidates will be allowed to choose, according to their place on the list, among the vacancies (a) for which they are duly qualified; or they may elect to wait for the chance of a vacancy (b). When vacancies (b) occur, they will be offered in rotation to the qualified candidates then on the list, who will be free to decline them without forfeiting their claim to subsequent vacancies (b).

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competitive Examination will be held in London in 1936, under the foregoing Regulations. The viva voce test will take place in July, the written examination in Section B subjects will begin on the 25th July and that in Section A subjects on the 1st August.

No person will be admitted to Examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 8th May, 1936, an application, in the candidate's own handwriting, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.
