

Electoral Highness intends to return the next week. That Elector has published a Declaration, promising several Privileges to such as will come and Build Houses at Manheym and Fredericksbourg, which Places he designs to Fortifie. VVe have yet no Account of the Evacuation of Brissac.

Dieren, Sept. 19. The King came hither on the 16th instant from Loo. The next day His Majesty went to the Camp to see the last of the Troops march in. Yesterday His Majesty went thither again early in the morning, and was met at the Entrance of the Camp by the Prince of Nassau Sarsbruck, who Commands there in Chief; and by the Earl of Atblome General of the Horse, and the other Generals, and Principal Officers of the Army. His Majesty found the Troops drawn out in Two Lines, being 28 Battalions of Foot, and 31 Squadrons of Horse and Dragoons, and was very well satisfied with the good Condition they all appeared in. The General Review being over, all the Horse and Dragoons passed by His Majesty in single Troops. There was a great Concourse of the Nobility and Gentry of these Parts and from Holland; The French Ambassador, Count Tallard, was also there, and after the Review waited upon His Majesty hither. This morning His Majesty returned to the Camp again, to see the Foot likewise pass by in single Companies; And to morrow the Forces will begin to File off towards their respective Garisons, and His Majesty designs to return to Loo. 'Tis said, His Majesty will begin his Journey to Cell about the 30th of this month.

Hague, Septemb. 19. The Baron d'Obrezinsky, Envoy from the Elector of Brandenbourg, who came some days ago from Loo, is gone for Berlin, but will return hither in a short time. The Count d'Atvergne is also come to this place from Loo. The Baron of Bloemberg, Envoy from the Duke of Courland, designs to take his Audience of Leave of the States General to morrow, and in a few days to begin his Journey home. Monsieur d'Odyke, Ambassador Extraordinary from this Staté at the French Court, is expected back the next month; and Monsieur Heemskerke, his Colleague is to continue there.

Paris, Sept. 20. N. S. The Court continues at Compeigne, where the young Princes of France have been Entertained with several Representations of Sieges, Attacks, and Battles, The King intends on Wednesday next to return to Versailles; and the 3d of the next month he will go to Fontainebleau. The Equipages of Mademoiselle, Daughter to the Duke of Orleans, are preparing in order to her Marriage with the Duke of Lorraine. The 29th instant is the day fixed for passing the Contract, and the 30th for the Ceremony of the Marriage, and in 6 or 7 days after she will begin her Journey to Lorraine. The Duke d'Esrees Died some days ago, and is Succeeded by the Marquis Cocurves, his Eldest Son, as well in his Title and Estate as in the Governments of the Isle of France, the Soissonois, and the Cities and Citadels of Laon, Noyon, and Soissons. On Thursday last arrived here a Courier from Madrid; 'Tis said, He brings an Account, That the King of Spain was very ill when he came away.

Portsmouth, Sept. 13. On Saturday last, Vice-Admiral Aylmer, with the Squadron of His Majesty's Ships under his Command, bound to the Strights, sailed from Spithead; but the VVind changing came to an Anchor at St. Helens, from whence he sailed again this morning.

London, Sept. 14. On the 12th instant was Launch'd at His Majesty's Yard at VVoolwich, a new 3d Rate Ship of 70 Guns, named the Bedford; and at VVoodbridge, a new 5th Rate Ship of 32 Guns, named the Ludlow, built by Mr. Mundy of that place.

Whereas Thomas Fowler, Daniel Stanjan, and Nicholas Moor, (now in Newgate) stand Indicted, That they with others, (not yet taken) on the 18th of August last, did Commit a Robbery upon Joseph Knight, and others, Goldsmiths, in Eoswell-Court in the Parish of St. Clements Dames in the County of Middlesex, to the value of 190 l. And Information upon Oath being made before the Lord Chief Justice Holt, That one Jam: Moor, a well set man, aged about 30; And that one Guffneg alias White, a lusty tall man, aged about 50, of a swarthy Complexion, round shouldered, a little short neck, commonly wore a dark brown Wig, and a Cinnamon colour'd Coat; And one Reymond Fitzmorris, a thin man, wore a light coloured Wig, aged about 30, were 3 of the Persons that were concerned in the said Robbery, who have since absconded and are fled from Justice: These are therefore to give Notice, That their Excellencies the Lords Justices of England, have been pleased to Promise His Majesty's Gracious Pardon to any one of the said Persons, or any other Person concerned, as shall first make a full and ample Discovery of the said Robbery, and of the Persons concerned therein, so as they may be Convicted of the same.

And as a further Encouragement for the Discovery aforesaid, the above-mentioned Joseph Knight of St. Pauls Covent-Garden, on behalf of himself and other the Goldsmiths that were Robbed, doth hereby Promise as a Reward, the Sum of 50 l. to be paid to the Person who shall make such Discovery aforesaid.
