

loss sustained by the death of our late beloved King.

The Jews of the United Kingdom and of the whole Empire, in common with all Your Majesty's other subjects, are overwhelmed at the great calamity which has bereft the British Commonwealth of Nations of its Sovereign and friend and has plunged the whole world into mourning. We feel that in the death of His Majesty the Empire has lost a Sovereign whose noble personal qualities, wise guidance and untiring labours for the welfare of his peoples have endeared him to his subjects and won him the respect and affection of the world.

We shall ever cherish as an undying memory the high example of his life and work and we humbly pray that the knowledge of the universal sorrow caused by his death may in some degree assuage the grief of Your Majesty and of the Royal Family.

We humbly crave leave to tender to Your Majesty our respectful congratulations on your accession to the Throne and to assure Your Majesty that the devotion and loyalty of Your Majesty's Jewish subjects will ever continue unabated. We ardently pray that the Almighty may shower blessings and happiness upon Your Majesty and that you may long live to reign in peace and in the enjoyment of the affection of a prosperous and united people.

I thank you for your generous appreciation of King George's high qualities and for your recognition of the singleness of purpose which inspired all his work during the anxious and troubled years of his Reign.

I hope that I may indeed find blessing and happiness in the preservation of peace and in the unity and prosperity of my People.
