PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Duke of Norfolk.
Marquess of Zetland.
Secretary Sir John Simon.
Sir Philip Sassoon.
Sir George Edward Rich.

WHEREAS by the Colonial Naval Defence Act, 1931 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), it is enacted that the legislature of any Colony may, with the approval of His Majesty in Council, make provision for maintaining and using vessels of war; and that where the legislature of any Colony has made provision for raising a force for the naval defence of the Colony within its territorial waters, that legislature may, with the approval of His Majesty in Council, further make such provision regarding the discipline and service of officers and men of that force as is set out in the Act:

And whereas by the Act it is further provided that His Majesty in Council may, on such conditions as He thinks fit, authorise the Admiralty to accept any offer made by the Government of a Colony to place at His Majesty's disposal for general service in the Royal Navy, vessels of war maintained, or officers or men of such force as aforesaid raised by the Colony:

And whereas by the Naval Volunteer Ordinance, 1935, of the Legislature of the Colony of the Gambia (hereinafter referred to as "the Legislature") provision has been made for raising a force for the Naval Defence of the Gambia called the Gambia Naval Volunteer Force (hereinafter referred to as "the Force"):

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Him by the above recited provisions, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The Gambia Naval Defence Order, 1936."

2. Approval is hereby given to the exercise by the Legislature of the power contained in Section 1 of the Act, to make provision at the expense of the Colony for maintaining and using vessels of war.

3. The Admiralty is hereby authorised to accept any offer made by the Government of the Gambia to place at His Majesty's disposal for general service in the Royal Navy any vessel of war so maintained, provided that, as regards any such vessel maintained by the Colony of the Gambia in conjunction with any other Colony, a like offer is made by such last mentioned Colony.

4. Approval is hereby given to the exercise by the Legislature of the powers contained in Subsection (1) of Section 2 of the Act namely, to provide that officers and men of the Force—

(a) shall, whether serving ashore or afloat or within or without the limits of the Gambia, be subject to all the enactments and regulations for the time being in force for the enforcement of discipline in the Royal Navy, with such modifications and adaptations as may be made by the Legislature to adapt those enactments and regulations to the circumstances of the Gambia;

(b) shall be liable to service and training in any ship, establishment or other place without the limits of the Gambia, whether belonging to the Gambia or not;

(c) shall, in the case of officers or men entered on the express terms of accepting general service in the Royal Navy in emergency, form part of the Royal Naval Reserve or of the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve, or that some shall form part of the Royal Naval Reserve and others of the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve.

5. The Admiralty is hereby authorised to accept any offer made by the Government of the Gambia to place at His Majesty's disposal for general service in the Royal Navy any officers and men of the Force.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of April, 1936.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Extradition Acts, 1870 to 1935 (33 & 34 Vict. c. 52; 22 & 23 Geo. 5. c. 39; 25 & 26 Geo. 5. c. 25), it was, amongst other things, enacted that, where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, His Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that His Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in, or suspected of being in, the part of His Majesty's dominions specified in the Order and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions and qualifications as may be deemed expedient:

And whereas a Treaty was signed on the 31st day of March, 1873, between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and His late Majesty the King of Denmark for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals:

And whereas the said Treaty was duly ratified (See S.R. & O. Revise 1904. V.):

And whereas a supplementary Convention was signed on the 15th day of October, 1935, between His late Majesty King George V and
