

or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Ely.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of April, 1936.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, His Majesty The King has jurisdiction within the dominions of the Republic of China:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, 1890 and 1913 (53 & 54 Vict. c. 37, and 3 & 4 Geo. 5. c. 16), or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. "The China (Amendment) Order in Council, 1929," (S.R. & O. 1929 No. 1180) is hereby repealed and the following article shall be substituted for Article 227 of "The China Order in Council, 1925" (S.R. & O. 1925 No. 603):—

"All fees, fines, penalties, and other sums of money which, under the provisions of this Order or any Regulations or Rules of Court, are stated or imposed in terms of British currency, shall be paid in such currency or currencies in use at that place where they are levied and at such rates of exchange as may from time to time be specified by His Majesty's Ambassador in China with the approval of His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and the concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

"The said rate of exchange shall apply to the ascertainment of the value of any income for any purpose of qualification or of any limitation or security, in any case where this Order or any Rule or Regulation contains a reference to British Currency."

2. The present Order shall be cited as the China (Amendment) Order in Council, 1936, and shall take effect on the 1st July, 1936.

3. Copies of the present Order shall be exhibited as soon as possible in the office of the Supreme Court for China and at each Provincial Consulate, but failure to comply with the provisions of the present article shall in no way affect the operation of the other provisions of this Order.

And the Right Honourable Anthony Eden, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

M. P. A. Hankey.

[The above Order was exhibited in China on the 16th June.]

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of April, 1936.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891" (54 & 55 Vict. c. 36), His Majesty The King is authorised by Order in Council to fix the fees to be taken in respect of any matter or thing done by a Consular Officer in the execution of his office, and to vary such fees by way of increase or decrease, and to abolish fees, and to create new fees:

And whereas by "The Foreign Marriage Act, 1892" (55 & 56 Vict. c. 23), by "The Marriage with Foreigners Act, 1906" (6 Ed. 7 c. 40), and by "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1913" (S.R. & O. 1913 No. 1270), it is provided that certain things may or shall be done on payment of the proper fee, and those Acts further provide that the proper fee shall be such fee as may for the time being be fixed under "The Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891" (54 & 55 Vict. c. 36), and that the fee so fixed as respects a Consul shall be the fee which may be taken by any marriage officer:

And whereas it is expedient that the notes set forth in the Table of Consular and Marriage fees in China, annexed to "The Consular Fees (Amendment) Order in Council, 1923" (S.R. & O. 1923 No. 968), should be varied in certain respects:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the said Acts, and with the advice of His Privy Council is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The Consular Fees (Amendment) Order in Council, 1936," and shall be read as one with "The Consular Fees Order in Council, 1921" (S.R. & O. 1921 No. 1131), and "The Consular Fees (Amendment) Order in Council, 1923" (S.R. & O. 1923 No. 968).

2. Note 5 of the notes set forth on the table annexed to "The Consular Fees (Amendment) Order in Council, 1923" (S.R. & O. 1923 No. 968), and as amended by the Schedule annexed to "The Consular Fees (Amendment) Order in Council, 1929" (S.R. & O. 1929 No. 373) is hereby withdrawn and the note set forth in the Schedule annexed to this Order is substituted therefor.

3. This Order shall come into operation upon 1st July, 1936.

And the Right Honourable Anthony Eden, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

M. P. A. Hankey.
