

joint adventure, reciprocal concessions or co-operation with any person or company carrying on, engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which the Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire and hold, sell or otherwise deal with shares or stock in or securities or obligations of, and to subsidise or otherwise assist any such person or company:

(C2) To guarantee the payment of moneys secured by or payable under or in respect of or the performance of bonds, debentures, debenture stock, shares, contracts, mortgages, charges, obligations and securities of any company, whether British, Colonial or Foreign, or of any authority, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, or of any person whomsoever, whether corporate or unincorporate:

(C3) To apply for, purchase or otherwise acquire any patents, licences and like rights, conferring an exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and to use, exercise, develop, grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account the rights and information so acquired:

(C4) To construct, maintain, improve, develop, work, control and manage any baths, places of worship, places of amusement, pleasure grounds, gardens, parks, reading rooms, stores, shops, clubs, restaurants, hostels, roads, power, heat and light supply and other works and conveniences which the Company may think directly or indirectly conducive to these objects and to contribute or otherwise assist or take part in the contribution, maintenance, development, working, control and management thereof:

(C5) To establish and support, or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions and conveniences calculated to benefit any of the employees or ex-employees of the Company, or the dependants or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition or for any public, general or useful object:

(C6) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of its or their acquiring all or any of the property, rights and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company, and to pay all the expenses of or incident to such promotion."

And notice is further given that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Honourable Mr. Justice Bennett at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, on Monday, the 20th day of July, 1936, when any person or class of persons whose interests will be affected by the proposed alteration, desirous of opposing the making of an Order confirming such alteration, may appear in person or by Counsel for that purpose.

A copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the undersigned.

Dated the 7th day of July, 1936.

ASHURST MORRIS CRISP and CO., 17, Throgmorton Avenue, London, E.C.2, (175) Solicitors for the Company.

Association with respect to the Company's objects proposed to be effected by a Special Resolution passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company held on the 22nd day of June, 1936, whereby it was resolved that the objects of the Company be altered by substituting for the existing Clause 3 of its Memorandum a new clause so as to enable the Company to carry on its business more economically or more efficiently or to attain its main purpose by new or improved means, or to carry on certain classes of business which, under existing circumstances, may be conveniently combined with the business of the Company and in particular:—

(a) To carry on all or any of the businesses of manufacturers of and dealers in automobile, aero, agricultural, marine and other engines, vehicles, tractors, aircraft and vessels of all descriptions for use on land, in or under water, or in the air, vaporisers and scientific instruments and apparatus of all kinds, and all parts of, and accessories to any of the foregoing;

(b) To carry on the business of engineering in all its branches and to carry on business as manufacturers of munitions of war;

(c) To carry on business as manufacturers of and dealers in electrical, photographic and surgical apparatus and as tool-makers, ferrous and non-ferrous metal-founders and metal workers, boiler-makers, millwrights, machinists, iron and steel converters, smiths, woodworkers, builders, painters, metallurgists, and general merchants, and generally to carry on any businesses of a character similar or analogous to any of the foregoing, or any business or manufacture which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above, or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the property or rights of the Company or to further any of its objects;

with the usual ancillary powers for the purpose.

A copy of the Memorandum of Association showing the alterations proposed to be effected by the said Special Resolution will be sent on request to any person or class of persons whose interests will be effected by the proposed alteration, and such a copy may be inspected by any such person at the registered office of the Company, at Holyhead Road, Coventry, in the county of Warwick, or at the office of Messrs. Slaughter & May, at the address mentioned below on any week-day prior to the 20th day of July, 1936, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 1 p.m.

And notice is further given that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Honourable Mr. Justice Bennett, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, on Monday, the 20th day of July, 1936, when any such person desirous of opposing the making of an Order confirming such alteration should appear in person or by Counsel for the purpose. Any such person is required to give notice in writing of intention so to appear stating the grounds of objection to the undersigned on or before the 16th day of July, 1936. A copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the undersigned.

Dated the 10th day of July, 1936.
