

in our hands of a capital sum sufficient in our opinion to provide such annual sum.

(b) That so long as the said annual sum of £250 continues to be payable to the said Herbert James Salmon as aforesaid (i) the annual sum which the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Shoreditch, Saint Michael shall be entitled to retain out of the endowments of the United Benefice shall be an annual sum of £500 instead of an annual sum of £600 as provided in Clause 6 of the original Order; (ii) the annual sum which the Incumbent of the United Benefice shall be liable to provide out of the income of the United Benefice towards the remuneration of the Curate to be appointed particularly to serve the Mission Church of Saint Agatha, Shoreditch, shall be £124 instead of an annual sum of £274 as provided in Clause 7 of the original Order, and

(c) that Clause 11 (b) (ii) of the original Order be altered to provide that in the event of the endowments of the United Benefice being insufficient at the date of the union to produce an annual income of £874 (being the sum of the payments hereinbefore recommended and proposed of £500 to the Incumbent of the United Benefice, £250 to the said Herbert James Salmon, and £124, in respect of the Curate to serve the Mission Church of Saint Agatha, Shoreditch) a capital sum sufficient to produce an income of such amount as may in our opinion be necessary to raise to £874 per annum the income from the endowments of the United Benefice shall be set aside and held and invested by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as an addition to the endowments of the United Benefice.

“Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measures, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament.”

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the same Measure to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

And whereas the prescribed time has elapsed and no such objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of London has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of London.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of July, 1936.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 25th day of June, 1936, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, Section 66, and of the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, Section 20, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme relating to the endowments of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Hereford and to the endowment of the Deanery of the said Cathedral Church:

“Whereas by the said Section 66 of the said Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, as amended by Section 20 of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, it is provided that by a Scheme of us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, ratified by Order of Your Majesty in Council in the manner in the said Acts contemplated, such annual sum may be determined on to be paid and shall accordingly be paid by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as after due enquiry and calculation shall give to the Dean of every Cathedral Church in England an average annual income of £1,000 and that it shall be lawful by such Scheme and Order in Council to carry such purpose into effect by any mode of payment, contribution, augmentation or endowment which may be deemed fit:

“And whereas the Chapter of the said Cathedral Church now consists of a Dean and four Canons, one canonry having been suspended under the provisions of the said Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, and we are entitled to receive the profits and emoluments of the said suspended canonry under the provisions of the same Act:

“And whereas by an Order of Her said late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council bearing date the 7th August, 1851, and duly published in the London Gazette on the 19th September, 1851, and made under the authority of the said Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, Section 66, and of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, Section 20, and hereinafter referred to as ‘the Order of 1851.’ provision is made for securing to the Dean of
