

and six persons elected singly by Grace for two years, shall (subject to the provisions of this Statute) have jurisdiction over University officers and over such persons not in statu pupillari as hold degrees or titles of degrees. Five members of the court shall constitute a quorum.

(i) The Septemviri shall have no jurisdiction over the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor, the High Steward, the Deputy High Steward, or the Commissary.

(ii) As a court of appeal the Septemviri shall hear appeals from decisions of the General Board, or other body, depriving a University officer of his office on account of failure to perform satisfactorily the duties or to fulfil the conditions of tenure of his office, and shall affirm or reverse such decisions. The decision of the Septemviri in such cases shall be final.

(iii) As a court of first instance the Septemviri shall (subject to the provisions of this Statute) adjudicate when a person over whom they have jurisdiction is charged, otherwise than under the immediately preceding paragraph of this section, with an offence against the discipline of the University or with grave misconduct, if the Commissary shall have certified in writing that the charge so made against that person is one which is fit to be entertained by the court. Every decision of the court acting as a court of first instance shall require the concurrence of at least four of its members. The court may award the following sentences either singly or in combination:

(a) deprivation or suspension of degree or title of degree;

(b) deprivation or suspension of University office;

(c) any sentence considered by them to be lighter than the aforesaid.

3. The Registry shall be the Clerk of the Septemviri.

4. The Septemviri shall have power to make rules of procedure.

5. Any person sentenced by the Septemviri sitting as a court of first instance may within twenty-eight days after notice of their decision lodge an appeal with the Chancellor. Such appeal shall be heard by a court consisting of the Chancellor, or a deputy appointed by him, and two assessors appointed by the Chancellor, all of whom shall be present. The court shall have power by the votes of a majority of all its members to affirm or reverse the decision of the Septemviri, or to vary the sentence.

6. A court, called the Court of Discipline, shall have jurisdiction over any member of a College and any Non-Collegiate Student, whether matriculated or not, who being in statu pupillari is charged with an offence against the discipline of the University or with acting in a manner discreditable to the University. It shall consist of the Vice-Chancellor and six Heads of Colleges, two being elected singly by Grace in each year to serve for three years. Four members of the court shall constitute a quorum, and every decision of the court shall require the concurrence of the votes of at least four of its members. The court may award the following sentences, either singly or in combination, namely, deprivation of degree or title of degree, rustication, expulsion, or any sentence which the court considers to be lighter.

Notice of a meeting of the court shall be given to the Head of the College to which the person charged belongs (or, if the latter is a Non-Collegiate Student, to the Chairman of the Non-Collegiate Students Board) in order to enable him to be present as an assessor but such Head or Chairman shall not (unless a member of the court) be entitled to vote.

7. The Court of Discipline shall have power to make rules of procedure.

STATUTE D.

CHAPTER II.

THE UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS.

By substituting in Section 9 the words "the Septemviri" for the words "the Vice-Chancellor and the Sex Viri."

CHAPTER III.

THE VICE-CHANCELLOR.

By adding to the Chapter the following Section:

7. The Chancellor shall have power, upon representations made to him by the Council, to suspend a Vice-Chancellor from his office. The Council shall appoint the Head of a House to perform the duties of Vice-Chancellor during the continuance of such suspension.

CHAPTER IV.

THE HIGH STEWARD, THE DEPUTY HIGH STEWARD, THE COMMISSARY.

By substituting for Section 4 the following Sections 4 and 5:

4. The duties of the High Steward and the Deputy High Steward shall be as heretofore customary.

5. The Commissary shall perform such duties as have heretofore been customary, and shall have the duty assigned to him in the Statute intituled "Discipline".

CHAPTER V.

THE PROCTORS.

By substituting in Section 8 the words "The Septemviri" for the words "The Vice-Chancellor and the Sex Viri".

CHAPTER VII.

THE REGISTRARY, THE SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE FACULTIES, ASSISTANT REGISTRARIES.

By inserting in Clause (b) of Section 2 the words "and of the Septemviri" after the words "the Courts of the Chancellor".

CHAPTER IX.

THE TREASURER.

By adding to the Chapter the following Section:

6. So far as the Financial Board may allow or direct, any duty of the Treasurer