Genova, Sept. 21. N. S.

THE Squadron of French Galleys, commanded by the Bailly of Novilles, arrived here yesterday from Naples, and to morrow they will sail again for Marselles.

Lemberg, Sept. 17. The Forces of this Crown marched on the 8th of this Month from Mnasterzyck to Podnize, but were hardly encamped when the Tartars advanced with their whole Force, being about 5000 Men, and attack'd them; our Troops were at first put into some Disorder, and the Enemy set fire to the Suburbs of the Town of Podnize, and having taken some of our Baggage, and several Prisoners, retired again. The next day the Poles put themselves in order of Battle, and the Tartars renewed the Engagement with a great deal of Fury; It lasted 8 hours, and our Troops, who were not above 7000 strong, defended themselves very well, and at last the Enemy retired towards Caminiec. We have yet no particular Account of the Number of the Slain, and of the Prisoners on either side, only 'tis said, that on ours several Officers are missing. The King was then at Brezesnau with his German Forces, and having received Advice of this Action, gave Orders immediately for the Army to march to join the Forces of Poland. Part of the Forces of Lithuania, commanded by General Willinsky. are on their March to do the like.

From the Imperial Camp near Berzkerk, Sept. 19. On the 13th of this Month our Foot repass'd the Begle, as the Horse did the 14th, and the Army encamped on the other side that River. The same day we received an Account from Peter-Waradin, that the Ottoman Army commanded by the Grand Visier, encamped the 13th Instant near Belgrade, where the Cham of Tartary arrived some days before; That they were encamped along the Save, and were making a Bridge of Boats over that River, and had repaired their Bridge over the Danube, and sent a Detachment of 4000 Men on this side the River to guard the same. On the 16th Colonel Deak, who was sent two days before with a Party of Hussars towards Temeswaer, returned to the Camp, and brought an Account, that he had engaged a Party of that Garrison, and taken some Prisoners, who inform'd him, That Provisions were grown very scarce there, and that they expected to be shortly supplied from Belgrade. That day a Detachment was sent with Fascines to repair the Ways between the Camp and Sablia, from whence we receive most of our Provisions, and another Party of 300 Men was commanded to guard the Bridge of Boats over the Tayffe, which keeps the Communication with that Place, and some Troops were posted likewise along the River side to secure the Passage thither by Water. On the 17th, Prince Eugene of Savoy having received Advice from the Turkish Army near Belgrade, that a strong Party was gone from their Camp with a considerable Supply of Ammu-munition and Provisions towards Temeswaer, and were to pass over the Danube the 16th, left the Command of all the Foot and a Detachment of 1600 Horse to General Heister, and went himself with all the rest of the Horse to endeavour to intercept this Convoy.

Vienna, Sept. 27. My Lord Paget's Secretary is come hither again from Belgrade, to acquaint this Court with his Excellency's arrival at that Place; and has brought a Message from the Grand Visier concerning the Negotiations for a Peace, which shews the good Disposition they are in on that side to bring the same to a speedy Conclusion; whereupon the Ambassadors for the Emperor, Venice, and Muscovy, are ordered to hasten their Departure, and accordingly they will in two or three days begin their Journey to Hungary, their Equipages being already sent away. An Express arrived here from the Palatine of Pofin, the King of Poland's Ambassador for the said Treaty, with an Account of his Arrival at Buda. The Place of Congress is appointed between Peter-Waradin and Salankemen, and a House all of Wood is building there for that purpose, which is so contrived, that all Dispute about the Rank in the Room where they are to meet, may be avoided. Our Advices from Hungary say, The Imperial Army, commanded by Prince Eugene of Savoy, continues encamped at Berkerke, and the Turks near Belgrade. The Letters from Transilvania give an Account, that the Body of Forces commanded by General Rabutin marched the 10th of this Month from Deva (where they had continued some days) to Dobra; the 11th they proceeded to Winten, and the 12th they encamped between Mullenbach and Reismark. These Letters add, that the Garrison of Temeswaer was in great want of Provisions. We have Advice by the way of Valachia, that the Muscovites have made an Iruption in Tartary, and have defeated a considerable Body of Tartars who would have opposed them.

Francfort, Octob. 5. The Elector Palatine left this Place the 29th of the last Month, and is returned to Weynheim. The Evacuation of Brisac being fixed for the 7th Instant, Prince Lewis of Baden is gone thither from Waldach, where he has continued some days; and after having taken Possession of that Place, he intends to visit Fryburg, Rhinfeldt, and the Fort of Kiel.

We have received Letters from Madrid of the 24th of the last Month by the way of France, which bring an Account, that the King of Spain was very well, having had no return of his Illness since the 29th of August. And that by an Express from Cadix they had Advice, that the Flota from N.w. Spain, consisting in 11 Merchant-Ships, was arrived here, and had brought with them the Effects saved out of the Admiral of the Galeons, which was lost near the Havana, except 50000 Pieces of Eight that were not yet taken up when they came away.

The Soldadoes and Speedwell had in their Company, when they came from England, his Majesty's Ships the Maidstone and Queenborough: The former they parted with on July 4. in Lat. 29 D. 8. M. being bound to the Bermudas with Mr. Day the Governor; and on July 8. they left the Queenborough bound to the Leeward Islands, in Lat. 24 D. 30 M. In their Passage from the Maderas a villanous Design was discover'd on board the Speedwell, carried on by one Jonackan Bear a Midship man, to surprize and murder the Captain, and afterwards to run away with the Ship; whereupon the said Bear, and two other Seamen chiefly concerned therein, were secured; and they are sent to England with his Majesty's Ships the Shearneck and Bonaventure, in order to be tried, and to receive the Punishment they deserve.
