

the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter 77, of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 37th and 38th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 63, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme with respect to the Archdeaconries of York and the East Riding, both in the Diocese of York, and to some of the Rural Deaneries within such Archdeaconries and within the Archdeaconry of Cleveland, in the said Diocese of York:

"Whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York, that the arrangements which are hereinafter recommended and proposed with respect to the said Archdeaconries and Rural Deaneries are desirable and should be carried into effect, and we are of opinion that the same may properly be carried into effect:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said William, Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and archiepiscopal seal to this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that as from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, first, the Rural Deaneries of Buckrose, Pocklington and Weighton, all in the said Archdeaconry of the East Riding, shall be transferred from such Archdeaconry and shall be included in the said Archdeaconry of York and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the Archdeacon of that Archdeaconry: secondly, the following Parishes shall be transferred from one Rural Deanery to another in the said Archdeaconry of York, that is to say, the Parishes of Haxby and Wigginton at present in the Rural Deanery of Easingwold, and the Parish of Dringhouses, at present in the Rural Deanery of Ainsty, shall be transferred to the Rural Deanery of York: thirdly, the Parish of Warter, at present in the Rural Deanery of Harthill in the said Archdeaconry of the East Riding, shall be transferred to the said Rural Deanery of Pocklington, formerly in the same Archdeaconry but now by virtue of these presents in the said Archdeaconry of York: fourthly, the following Parishes shall be transferred from one Rural Deanery to another in the said Archdeaconry of the East Riding, that is to say, the Parishes of Leven, Routh and Waghen (alias Wawne), at present in the Rural Deanery of North Holderness, and the Parish of Lund with Kilnwick, at present in the said Rural Deanery of Harthill, shall be transferred to the Rural Deanery of Beverley, and fifthly, the following Parishes shall be transferred from one Rural Deanery to another in the said Archdeaconry of Cleveland, that is to say, the Parishes of Cowesby and Over Silton at present in the Rural Deanery of Northallerton, shall be transferred to the Rural Deanery of Thirsk, and the Parishes of Danby with Castleton and Westerdale, at present in the Rural Deanery of Whitby, and the Parish of High Worsall, at present in the said Rural Deanery of Northallerton, shall be transferred to the Rural Deanery of Stokesley; and each of the said Parishes shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the Rural Dean of the Rural Deanery and of the Archdeacon of the Archdeaconry in which it is hereby included and to which it is hereby transferred and shall not belong to or be a part of any other Rural Deanery or Archdeaconry nor be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of any other Rural Dean or of any other Archdeacon.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing with respect to the matters aforesaid or any of them by virtue of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas notices of the said Scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the Archdeacons affected by the Scheme, that is to say, to the Archdeacon of York, to the Archdeacon of the East Riding, and to the Archdeacon of Cleveland, and they have severally expressed their approval of the same:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of York.
