THIS day the Honourable Robert Gordon Menzies, K.C. (Attorney-General of the Commonwealth of Australia), was, by His Majesty's command, appointed a Member of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

M. P. A. Hankey.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 2nd day of February, 1937.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section one hundred and four of the Explosives Act, 1875 (38 Vict. c. 17), it is enacted that His Majesty may, by Order in Council, declare that any substance which appears to His Majesty to be specially dangerous to life or property by reason either of its explosive properties, or of any process in the manufacture thereof being liable to explosion, shall be deemed to be an explosive within the meaning of the said Act, and the provisions of the said Act (subject to such exceptions, limitations, and restrictions as may be specified in the Order) shall accordingly extend to any such substance in like manner as if it were included in the term explosive in the said Act:

And whereas acetylene, when liquid or subject to a certain degree of compression, or when in admixture with air or oxygen, is specially dangerous to life or property by reason of its explosive properties:

And whereas the provisions of section one of the Rules Publication Act, 1893 (56 & 57 Vict. c. 66), have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, as follows:—

Acetylene, when liquid or when subject to a pressure exceeding nine pounds to the
