The following Addresses were presented to His Majesty at Buckingham Palace on Tuesday the 23rd instant:—

CONVOCAATION OF CANTERBURY.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

WE, Your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the Archbishops, Bishops and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury in Convocation assembled, approach Your Majesty with the dutiful assurance of our devotion to Your Majesty's Throne and Person.

In assuming the responsibilities of Your high office Your Majesty will be sustained by the goodwill and confidence of the whole British Commonwealth at home and overseas.

We rejoice to think that your Majesty will be able to draw upon the ripe experience and ready sympathy of your Royal Mother, Queen Mary, and that in your home life, as in the fulfilment of your public duties, you will have at your side our gracious Queen Elizabeth, whose unfailing kindness and unaffected charm have long since endeared her to all classes of your people.

It is with confident hope that we look forward to Your Majesties' Coronation. We assure Your Majesty that, so far as in us lies, we shall not be passive onlookers at your Hallowing.

We regard it as a sacred duty, as we count it a high honour, to associate ourselves and those whom we represent with the noble resolve expressed by Your Majesty in your message to the Empire at the beginning of this year; and in union with our King and Queen, we desire to dedicate ourselves afresh, in this Coronation year, to the Service of our country and of our God.

We commend to Your Majesty's favour and protection the Church which we represent, and crave Your encouragement and support in all that it attempts to do for the moral and spiritual welfare of Your people in this and other lands.

And we shall ever pray that Grace and Guidance may be given to Your Majesty in the discharge of the duties of Your exalted station, and that the Blessing of Almighty God may rest upon Your Majesty, upon our gracious Queen Elizabeth, upon Your children and upon every member of Your Royal House.

(Sgd.) COSMO CANTUAR, President.

(Sgd.) D. H. S. CRANAGE, Prolocutor.

21st January, 1937.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank Your Grace for this loyal and dutiful address upon my accession to the Throne. I am deeply moved by your references to the Queen and my dear Mother. I assure you that I shall ever give my support to your work among my peoples. And in carrying out the duties which have now fallen to me

I shall be encouraged and sustained by the knowledge that your prayers are offered to God in my behalf.

CONVOCAATION OF YORK.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the Archbishop, Bishops and Clergy of the Province of York, in Convocation assembled, approach Your Majesty with the dutiful assurance of our devotion to Your Majesty's Throne and Person.

We join with all our fellow-citizens throughout this nation and empire in the sympathy and the loyal welcome universally extended to Your Majesty on Your accession, and we ask permission to express our humble duty to Your Majesty and to Your Majesty's gracious Consort. We render thanks to Almighty God, "by Whom Kings reign and princes decree justice" that He has called to reign over us one who has shown so deep an interest in the welfare of all classes, and especially of the industrial and agricultural workers who form so large a proportion of the people among whom we minister. We rejoice in the knowledge that Your Majesty has taken a personal share in practical efforts to bind together young people of different social types in a living fellowship which must lead to fuller mutual understanding in the years to come.

The general improvement in the Trade and Commerce of our Country has for the time being at any rate beneficially affected most of the Province which we represent. But the "Special Areas" of Durham and West Cumberland are within that Province, as also are certain areas not thus officially described, but suffering from acute and continuing diminution of Trade. The effects of these conditions, not only in misery but also in damage to character, are such that we are obliged at all times to keep them before our minds and consciences, and to claim for the difficult problem of remedying these evils a foremost place in the attention of all citizens. We are encouraged by the knowledge that Your Majesty is as deeply concerned as ourselves for the amelioration of conditions in those areas.

We approach the Solemnity of Your Majesty's Coronation with heartfelt prayers that by God's blessing Your Majesty's subjects may be united with one heart and will in loyalty to Your Majesty and in brotherly charity one towards another, dedicating themselves with renewed devotion to Almighty God. We are persuaded that the welfare of our nation can be securely grounded only upon the revelation of God and His will given to men in Jesus Christ and we know that we shall have the encouragement of Your Majesty's support in every effort we may make to deepen in ourselves and in our fellow citizens the response of faith and obedience to the Gospel.

And we shall ever pray that His blessing may rest abundantly upon Your Majesty's Person, upon Her Majesty the Queen, upon Queen Mary, and upon Your Majesty's whole Family and Realm.

Dated at York this 21st day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven.

Signed on behalf of the Convocation of the Province of York.

WILLIAM EBOR, President.

FRED. G. ACKERLEY, Prolocutor.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank your Grace for the loyal and dutiful address from the Province of York upon my accession to the Throne.

With God's help I shall do all within my power to promote the fellowship and welfare of my peoples, especially those upon whom the burden of unemployment, to my deep distress, still lies so heavily.

I join in your prayers that the Blessing of God my rest upon my reign.

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD.

A LOYAL AND DUTIFUL ADDRESS OF CONGRATULATION TO HIS MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY KING GEORGE VI ON HIS ACCESSION TO THE THRONE.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the most loyal and ancient University of Oxford ask leave to address to Your Majesty our congratulations on your accession to the Throne. Called unexpectedly to assume this lofty position of great responsibility, Your Majesty has responded to the call with the same quiet resolution with which, Sir, you have always met the summons of duty. Encouraged by the example of your illustrious Father and Mother, supported by the companionship of Her Gracious Majesty the Queen, and animated by a sympathy with all classes of your people, many times shown in word and deed, Your Majesty may proceed to the execution of your high duties confident of the loyalty and affection of your subjects.

We of the University of Oxford rejoice to reckon Your Majesty and Her Majesty the Queen among our Doctors and we hope for a continuance of that Royal favour which has in times past been bestowed upon us. We beg to assure Your Majesty of our unswerving devotion to the Throne, and we pray that Your Majesty's reign may be long, happy and prosperous.

Given in our House of Convocation on the Sixteenth day of February in the year of Our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirty-Seven.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

It gives me great pleasure to receive from the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Oxford this loyal and dutiful address upon my accession to the Throne.

I thank you warmly for your good wishes, and I assure you that the Queen and I, as Honorary Graduates of Oxford, will maintain the closest interest in your progress.

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.
May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, humbly ask leave to express to Your Majesty our sentiments of heartfelt loyalty on the occasion of Your accession to the Throne.

The ancient University by whose commission we approach You has in the past received many favours from Your Royal Ancestors. Some of them, while it was still poor and of small account, enriched it by the foundation of famous Colleges, and the erection of noble buildings to adorn them. Our Library was enlarged by the wise munificence of the first of our Kings who reigned under the name of George. Your Majesty's Great-Grandfather, Albert, Prince Consort, of illustrious memory, himself held the office of Chancellor of our University, and took in our affairs a deep and practical interest, such as he was wont to take in the things of the mind. And it is with special pride and joy that we recall that Your Majesty was Yourself an undergraduate at Cambridge, participating in the studies and the life of our University, as Your Majesty's Grandfather, while Prince of Wales, had done in years gone by.

We pray that Almighty God may guide and guard Your Majesty, Your beloved wife, and Your children after You. In spite of the troubles and dangers of the age in which it is our lot to live, may Your reign prove long and prosperous, and full of blessing.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I am glad to receive this Loyal Address from the University of Cambridge and on behalf of the Queen and Myself I thank you warmly for your good wishes.

As a Member of the University I shall take an intimate interest in all its activities and it will be My care and pleasure to maintain that close association which, as you remind Me, has existed for so many years between My Family and your University.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's faithful and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, desire with all loyal respect to offer to Your Majesty our cordial congratulations on Your accession to the Throne; and we pray that Your Majesty may be long spared to reign over us.

We respectfully assure Your Majesty of our devotion to Your Person and Throne, and that there are no more loyal subjects in Your Majesty's vast dominions than the members of this National Church.

We also desire with loyal respect to welcome Your august and gracious Consort, Queen Elizabeth, as a daughter of Our Land and a lineal descendant of our Scottish Kings, who has made herself beloved by Your Majesty's subjects throughout the Empire.

We recall with profound thankfulness to Almighty God the high distinction which signalled the wise and beneficent reign of Your revered Father, King George the Fifth, whose kingly character and loving concern for His peoples so greatly blessed the whole British Commonwealth of nations throughout five and twenty historic and fateful years.

We further gratefully recall the affectionate regard in which your Father held the National Church of his ancient Kingdom of Scotland; and look back with pleasure on the two occasions on which Your Majesty filled the office of Lord High Commissioner to the General Assembly, and shared in the high solemnities which completed the great and historic act of the Reunion of the Church of Scotland.

It has been most pleasing to us to learn how readily Your Majesty at Your first Council proffered the constitutional pledge to maintain and preserve inviolably the settlement of the true Protestant religion, with the government, worship, discipline, rights and privileges of the Church of Scotland.

Remembering with gratitude to God how long the protection of our civil and religious liberties has been identified with the Royal House, and being fully persuaded that the fear of God pervading all classes is the best safeguard of the stability of the Throne and of the peace and prosperity of the Empire, we esteem it a sacred duty to encourage the people under our charge to maintain inviolate their loyalty to Your Majesty's Person and Throne, and to render that willing obedience to the laws which the precepts of the Gospel require of us.

We pray that the Blessing of Almighty God, the King of kings, in Whose hands it is to make great, may rest upon Your Majesty, our gracious Queen Elizabeth and the Royal Family; that the Throne may be established in righteousness; and that Your Majesty may be long spared to reign in the hearts of a free, loyal and religious people.

May it please Your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects, The Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name by

DANIEL LAMONT, Moderator.

Edinburgh.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you for your Loyal Address on behalf of the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland.

I appreciate the references you have made to the regard and affection in which My dear father was held by his subjects, and to the occasions on which, as Duke of York, I held the historic Office of Lord High Commissioner to the General Assembly.

It will be My earnest endeavour, with God's help, to preserve the blessings of peace in the homes of My people.

We earnestly pray that Your Reign may be a long and happy one and that it may be marked by an increase of true religion, the health and safety of the Realm and peace among the nations of the world.

On behalf of the Free Churches we assure Your Majesty of our constant prayers that You may be sustained in bearing the burden of Your high office by the help of Almighty God, and that His richest blessing may rest upon Yourself, upon our Gracious Queen Elizabeth and upon Your children.

Evangelical Free Churches.

I am grateful for this Loyal and Dutiful Address assuring Me of the devotion of the Members of the Free Churches to My Throne and Person.

I thank you sincerely for your good wishes, and I join in your prayer that God may sustain Me in My work and grant us all His blessing.

SOCIETY OF FRIENDS.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please the King

As representing the Religious Society of Friends, commonly known as Quakers, of Great Britain and Ireland, we bring to Your Majesty the loyalty which we have always given to your House.

The continuing generations of family life from your great ancestress, Queen Victoria, have brought to you a wonderful inheritance. We look back with grateful thoughts to the character of your beloved Father, feeling sure that this will be both a support and an inspiration in the task now laid upon you.

We value the sympathetic interest so freely shown by you in all that affects the life of the masses of your people, their recreation in youth, their welfare in industry, their needs when unemployed. We are confident that this experience in comradeship, added to your personal knowledge of the many different peoples in your wide Empire, will be of service in forwarding that understanding between men and nations of which the world now stands in deepest need.

We pray that you and your advisers may be guided by Almighty God in seeking and finding the right path to take through all the difficulties which beset the world to-day.

In thus saluting you at the outset of your reign, may we be permitted also to express to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth our earnest wishes for your joint happiness. Believing that our civilisation has grown from the sound foundation of a well-ordered family life, united in the bonds of affection, we rejoice to think that the example of the happiness of your own home will radiate to your subjects everywhere.

Signed on behalf of the Society of Friends in Great Britain.

WILFRID E. LITTLEBOY, Clerk.

I thank you for your loyal Address and I am much touched by your reference to my dear Father and to my Family. I pray with you that God's Blessing may rest on our efforts to secure the happiness of our people at home and abroad and to foster sympathy and understanding between the nations.

We beg to assure Your Majesty of our deep gratitude for the signal services you have already rendered to the peoples of the British Commonwealth, and our firm conviction that your reign, under the blessing of Divine Providence, will safeguard the liberties and promote the welfare and contentment of all the subjects of your vast Empire. In particular we cherish the confident hope that Your Majesty will continue your gracious favour to the universities and all schools of sound learning throughout your dominions.

It is our humble and earnest prayer that Your Majesty may long be spared to reign over a prosperous and united people.

UNIVERSITY OF ST. ANDREWS.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, The University of St. Andrews, desire respectfully on the occasion of Your Majesty's accession to the Throne to offer this expression of our constant loyalty.

From the distant days of our Foundation, the association of our ancient University with the Throne has been continuous and remains a source of pride and inspiration to us.

We would offer also our loyal service to Your Gracious Consort, Her Majesty the Queen, who, in 1929, added to the honours borne by the University in accepting the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Laws, thereby maintaining the traditional attachment of her family to our home of learning.

We know Your Majesty's vital interest in the manifold problems which confront the world to-day and we promise that our University will loyally play her part in supporting Your Majesty's efforts to solve these difficulties. We have confidence that Your Majesty's devotion to duty will secure happiness for your people and will bring to you the reward of their lasting affection.

This most ancient of the Universities in Scotland, charged with the responsibility of guiding the ideals and fostering the hopes of youth, welcomes especially Your Majesty's thought for the youth of the Empire and rests assured that this interest so steadfastly and so graciously evinced, will be maintained amid Your Majesty's onerous duties of rule and governance.

We present to Your Majesty and to Her Majesty the Queen, our heartfelt allegiance. We pray that God may grant Your Majesties a long and happy reign and may enable you to exercise a gracious influence for peace and goodwill in the Empire and throughout the world.

UNIVERSITY OF GLASGOW.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please Your Majesty,

IN our high privilege of direct access to the Person of the Sovereign, we, Your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, representing the University of Glasgow, do now humbly approach Your Majesty that we may tender our homage and steadfast devotion on the occasion of Your Majesty's accession to the Throne of Your Royal Fathers.

The University of Glasgow was founded in the year of Our Lord fourteen hundred and fifty-one under the favour of Your Majesty's Royal Ancestor, James II, King of Scots. While strongly beholden to the goodwill of that chivalrous Prince and to the continued patronage of his Royal Successors, we have also in these later years enjoyed in notable measure the generous recognition of Your Royal House. The august Names of King Edward VII, of King George V, and Queen Mary are inscribed upon our Roll of honoured graduates; and we recall with grateful pride that Your Majesty when Duke of York, and Her Royal Highness the Duchess, who is now our Queen, enriched our annals five years ago by adding to that historic roll Your Own illustrious Names.

We do ever desire, following our ancient tradition, to foster the pursuit of Theology, Law and Arts, and at the same time, conforming with modern progress, to further and promote in this populous industrial area of the West of Scotland the beneficent aims of Medicine, Natural Science, Engineering and the Architecture of Ships, together with those Economic and Social Studies which so closely concern the safety and welfare of nations. In this Commission we are encouraged by the favour which Your Majesty has shown to us and to the cause of learning.

We humbly assure Your Majesty of our devoted attachment; and we pray that Almighty God may grant to Your Majesty and to Your gracious Consort, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth, many happy and prosperous years, and that by His grace Your Majesty's Reign may add new lustre to the story of this island Kingdom and of Your Majesty's wide Dominions overseas.

Signed and Sealed on behalf of the University of Glasgow and presented to His Majesty the King on this twenty-third day of March, 1937.

D. M. STEVENSON, Chancellor.

IAIN COLQUHOUN, Rector.

H. J. W. HETHERINGTON, Principal.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you for the Loyal Address from the University of Glasgow and for the assurances of allegiance which it contains.

I am conscious of the place taken by your University in the activities of the great city of Glasgow, and I shall continue to follow with interest its work in the advancement of learning.

UNIVERSITY OF ABERDEEN.

May it please Your Majesty,

The University of Aberdeen presents its humble duty on the occasion of Your Majesty's Accession to the Throne.

We respectfully offer our loyal service, and pray that Your reign may be long and happy. To Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth we also submit our heartfelt allegiance. It is our earnest hope that every blessing will attend Your Majesties both in Your Empire and in Your Home.

In the North of Scotland we have many special ties which bind us to Your House and to Your Person.

Her Majesty Queen Mary is the most eminent of our honorary graduates.

The presentation to many of our professional chairs and to the Balmoral bursaries in our University is in Your royal gift.

Your Majesty has been from boyhood familiar with the Highland region which lies within our area of service, and many of us had recently the opportunity of joining in the loyal welcome which Aberdeen offered to Your Majesties at the opening of the Royal Infirmary, in the neighbourhood of which our new Medical School is being built.

It is our hope that Your Majesty may graciously continue the interest which Your Royal House has always shown towards the King's and Marischal Colleges of the University of Aberdeen in their endeavour to continue worthily the great traditions of higher education in Scotland.

The welfare of your University, and of the Northern regions which it serves, will ever be of the greatest interest to the Queen and Myself.

THE ROYAL SOCIETY.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, your loyal and dutiful subjects, the President, Council and Fellows of the Royal Society of London, humbly beg leave to offer Your Majesty, the patron of our Society, our respectful congratulations on the occasion of your Accession to the Throne.

The Royal Society since its foundation by King Charles the Second, has continued, under the illustrious patronage of each of Your Majesty's predecessors, to devote itself to the Promotion of Natural Knowledge, for which purpose it was founded. The Royal Society is confident that, with Your Majesty's patronage and approval, it will remain the centre for the recognition and promotion of the work of Your Majesty's subjects for the Advancement of Science.

The Royal Society accordingly claims the privilege of being permitted to offer this loyal tribute of esteem to Your Majesty, on behalf of men of Science in this country and throughout your Dominions. It is offered in the earnest hope that Your Majesty, with her most gracious Majesty the Queen, may long reign over your devoted and loyal subjects.

On behalf of the Council and Fellows of the Royal Society.

(Sgd.) W. H. BRAGG, President.

March, 1937.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank the President and Fellows of the Royal Society for their loyal Address. It will be my pleasure to maintain the close interest which my predecessors on the Throne have taken in the Royal Society for nearly three hundred years and I shall watch with sympathy your labours in the realm of Science. I value greatly the good wishes which you offer to the Queen and to myself.

The following Addresses were presented to His Majesty at Buckingham Palace on Thursday, the 25th instant:—
