

Article 2.

Persons born in Bahrein before or after the date of this Law whose fathers at the time of those persons' birth possessed the nationality of another State shall not be considered to be Bahrein nationals:

(a) if they register at the Political Agency within one year of the date on which they attain the age of 18, if then resident in Bahrein, or within one year of the date of the commencement of their residence in Bahrein if not then resident in Bahrein; or

(b) if they register at the Political Agency within one year of the date of the promulgation of this Law if they have already attained the age of 18 and are resident in Bahrein; or

(c) if they shall have been registered at the Political Agency within two years of their birth or if their births shall have been registered within two years of their occurrence.

Article 3.

A person who possesses Bahrein nationality shall lose it

(a) if he voluntarily acquires by naturalisation the nationality of another State and an order cancelling his Bahrein nationality is given by the Ruler of Bahrein, either on the application of that person or proprio motu;

(b) if he also possesses the nationality of another State and an order cancelling his Bahrein nationality is given by the Ruler of Bahrein on the application of that person.

Article 4.

(i) A woman who marries a Bahrein national shall acquire Bahrein nationality and a woman of Bahrein nationality who marries a foreigner shall lose Bahrein nationality if and when she acquires the nationality of her husband but not otherwise.

(ii) A woman who has acquired Bahrein nationality by marriage shall lose it when divorced or a widow if she acquires or possesses another nationality. Bahrein nationality may be restored to her by an order of the Ruler of Bahrein given on her application.

Article 5.

The Ruler of Bahrein may grant Bahrein nationality to any person resident in Bahrein who applies for it and may subsequently cancel the grant if such person ceases to reside in Bahrein.
