Whitehall, May 24, 1937.

The following Address was presented to The King on Monday the 24th instant on the arrival of Their Majesties at St. Paul's Cathedral to attend the Empire Day Service in the Cathedral:—

To The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty:—

It has been a gracious privilege extended by Your Majesty's Royal Predecessors to the Children of the Religious, Royal and Ancient Foundation of Christ's Hospital to offer their humble and loyal greetings on the occasion of their Sovereign's visit to His capital City.

Immediately after the foundation of the Hospital in 1552 by King Edward the Sixth of Blessed Memory, the Children were permitted to address Queen Mary Tudor, and the custom has continued through the centuries.

We remember with gratitude that Your Majesty honoured our House last year by becoming our President and that Your Majesty expressed Your interest in our great Schools, which You hoped in due course to visit. We rejoice at the thought that Your Majesty has become our Patron, and that we also enjoy the Royal Favour by virtue of the Presidency of His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester.

That Your Majesty and Queen Elizabeth may have a long, happy, and prosperous Reign is the earnest prayer of the Sons and Daughters of this ancient House, who share the hope of all Your Majesty's subjects that peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety, may be established among us for all generations.
