

If the Principal shall not be and the Vice-Principal shall be in Priest's Orders of the Church of England, the annual sum of £150, being the amount of such charge, shall be paid to the Vice-Principal. If neither the Principal nor the Vice-Principal shall be in Priest's Orders of the Church of England, the annual sum of £150, being the amount of such charge, shall be paid to the Chaplain of the Hall.

7. The Principal shall reside in the Hall for not less than seven months in each academical year, of which not less than seven weeks shall fall within each Full Term; provided that in case of the sickness of the Principal or for any other reasonable cause, the Visitor may dispense with his obligation to reside for such period and on such conditions as he may judge to be required by the necessity of the case.

8. The Principalship may, subject to the provisions of any other Statutes of the University, be held with a Professorship or other office in the University, but in this case the stipend payable to the Principal out of the revenues of the Hall shall not exceed the sum which will make his emoluments including those of the Professorship or other office amount in all to £1,800 a year.

9. The Principal shall not hold any office outside the University to which an annual stipend or other emolument is attached, except with the consent of a majority of the Trustees.

10. The Principal shall, subject to the provisions of these Statutes, hold office from the day of his institution until the 31st day of July next following the 70th anniversary of his birth, or if such anniversary of his birth falls on the 31st day of July then until such anniversary.

11. The Principal shall be subject to and entitled to the benefits of the Superannuation Scheme of the Hall when and so soon as such Scheme shall be established in the Hall under the provisions of Statute VI of these Statutes, but as to the Principal holding office at the date of such establishment subject to the provisions of Statute VI, Clause 4.

12. If the Principal shall be granted by the Visitor a dispensation from residence for a period of one term or more, or if the Principal being resident shall be through sickness temporarily incapable of performing his duties, the Trustees may make such provision as may be necessary for the temporary discharge of the duties and exercise of the powers of the Principal as they may think fit. The Vice-Principal or such other deputy for the Principal as the Trustees may appoint shall, in respect of the time during which he shall perform the said duties and exercise the said powers, be entitled to receive such part not exceeding in amount one-half of the Principal's pecuniary emoluments as the Trustees shall determine, and the remaining part thereof shall be received by the Principal.

13. If at any time it shall appear that the Principal has become permanently incapable of discharging the duties of his office, the Visitor may, if he thinks fit, upon the petition of not less than two-thirds of the Trustees present at a meeting specially summoned, and after inquiry held by him, declare that the Principal has become permanently incapable of performing the duties of his office, and make an order directing that the Principalship shall be deemed to be vacant at the expiration of a time to be fixed by the order, and the Trustees shall thereupon proceed to the election of a new Principal; pursuant to these Statutes.

14. If the Principal shall be declared by the votes of a majority of the Trustees present and voting at a meeting specially summoned under the provisions of Statute X, Clause 3, to be guilty of conduct which renders his deprivation necessary to the welfare of the Hall, it shall be lawful for the Visitor upon petition signed by not less than two-thirds of the Trustees and after due inquiry to deprive him of his office, and the decision of the Visitor upon such petition shall be final.

STATUTE IV.

THE TRUSTEES.

1. The Trustees shall be not more than ten in number, and they shall be of two classes, namely (1) representative Trustees and (2) elected Trustees.

2. The representative Trustees shall be four in number and of them:—

One shall be appointed by the Curators of the University Chest;

One shall be appointed by the Governing Body of the Queen's College;

One shall be appointed by the Fellows of the Hall; and

One shall be appointed by the Association of Senior Members of the Hall, entitled the Aularian Association, unless and until the University shall at the request of the Principal and Trustees otherwise determine.

The first appointment of representative Trustees by the Curators of the University Chest, the Governing Body of the Queen's College, the Fellows of the Hall, and the Aularian Association respectively shall be made within one month after the date on which His Majesty the King in Council has by Order approved this Statute or as soon as may be after that date. All appointments of representative Trustees shall forthwith be notified in writing to the Principal by the body or persons making the appointment.

3. The elected Trustees shall be elected by the Principal and Trustees. The first election of elected Trustees shall be made at a meeting of the Principal and the representative Trustees to be convened by the Principal as soon as conveniently may be after the appointment of the first representative Trustees. All subsequent elections to the office of elected Trustee except elections to fill casual vacancies shall take place at the Stated General Meeting of the Principal and Trustees held in November. No person other than a retiring elected Trustee shall be eligible for election to the office of elected Trustee, unless by notice in writing delivered to the Principal not less than twenty-one days before the date of the meeting at which the election is to be held he shall have been proposed by the Principal or one of the Trustees and seconded by the Principal or one of the Trustees, or it be resolved by the vote of not less than two-thirds of the Trustees present at the meeting that a person not so proposed and seconded be eligible.

The name of any person proposed for election to the office of elected Trustee together with the name of his proposer and seconder shall be circulated by the Principal to all the Trustees at least fourteen days before the date of the meeting at which the election is to be held.
