

persons connected with the Hall or eminent benefactors thereof to Honorary Fellowships within the Hall. Persons so elected shall be termed Honorary Fellows and shall not be entitled to receive any pecuniary emolument, nor be required to perform any duties, but shall be entitled to enjoy such other privileges and advantages as the Principal with the consent of the Fellows of the Hall shall from time to time determine.

20. The Principal may with the consent of the Trustees set apart and allow out of the revenues of the Hall a moderate sum for the provision of a Common Dinner whether in the Dining Hall or in some public room in the Hall, of which the Principal and Fellows of the Hall shall be entitled to partake without charge. The same privilege may with the consent of the Fellows of the Hall be extended by the Principal to any Lecturer of the Hall not being a Fellow.

21. Unmarried Fellows of the Hall residing within the Hall shall be entitled to rooms in the Hall free of rent. No other Fellow of the Hall shall be entitled to rooms in the Hall, but a married Fellow of the Hall may have rooms assigned to him on such terms as the Principal may from time to time determine.

22. All payments made for tuition by members of the Hall in statu pupillari shall be set aside to form a Tuition Fund, and shall be applicable to the payment of persons giving tuition or instruction to members of the Hall in statu pupillari and to other expenses connected with the education of members of the Hall in statu pupillari. Superannuation contributions payable under Statute VI of these Statutes may be provided from the Tuition Fund.

STATUTE VI.

PENSIONS.

1.—(1) If and when in the opinion of the Principal and Trustees available funds permit, the Principal shall make an application to the Central Council administering and controlling the Federated Superannuation System for Universities for the admission of the Hall to membership of that system.

(2) The provisions hereinafter in this Statute contained shall come into force as from such date (in this Statute referred to as "the date of admission") as shall be agreed upon between the Principal and Trustees and the said Central Council.

2. The Principal and Trustees shall comply with the regulations of the said Central Council.

3. The Superannuation Scheme (in this Statute referred to as the "Scheme") of the Federated Superannuation System for Universities together with any amendments or modifications which may hereinafter be introduced into the Scheme by the said Central Council shall be in force in the Hall.

4. The Scheme shall be compulsory on the Principal and on every Fellow of the Hall appointed for the first time on and after the date of admission. The Principal or any Fellow of the Hall holding office at the date of Admission shall be allowed to place himself under the Scheme on such terms as may be agreed between the Trustees and the Principal or the Principal and Trustees and such Fellow.

5. All moneys payable by the Hall under the Scheme and under this Statute shall be provided for either out of the income of any Trust Funds lawfully applicable for such purposes or out of any moneys or revenues of the Hall.

6. For the purposes of the Scheme the stipends attached by these Statutes to the Principalship and to any other office in the Hall shall be calculated exclusively of the value of any prescribed allowances made under these Statutes or under other Statutes for the Hall.

7. Where any person comes under the Scheme both under or by virtue of this Statute and also under or by virtue of any Statute of any College or of any Statute or Decree of the University the Principal and Trustees shall so far as it is practicable enter into an arrangement with the Governing Body of such last-mentioned College or the Body or Authority designated by such Statute or Decree as the nature of the case may require, as regards the application of the Scheme to such person, and any such arrangements made may provide for the trusteeship arising under the Scheme being exercised exclusively either by the Principal and Trustees or by such Governing Body of a College, or such Body or Authority as aforesaid and otherwise as may be necessary or convenient for unifying the administration of the Scheme as regards such person, provided that no such arrangement shall reduce any deduction or contribution provided for by the Scheme as applied by this Statute.

8. Every person coming or placing himself under the Scheme by virtue of the provisions of this Statute shall immediately upon his being required so to do by the Principal and Trustees sign an agreement in the form required by the Federated Superannuation System for Universities providing for his being bound by the Scheme.

STATUTE VII.

MEMBERS IN STATU PUPILLARI.

1. The Principal and Trustees shall have power to establish scholarships and exhibitions in the Hall and to determine the number of open entrance scholarships and exhibitions to be offered for competition in each academical year. The Principal with the consent of the Trustees shall determine what sum in addition to any sums provided by Trust Funds or other special endowments shall be set aside out of general revenues of the Hall in each academical year for the provision of scholarships and exhibitions.

2. Subject to the provisions of these Statutes, the Principal and Fellows of the Hall shall determine the subjects for which scholarships and exhibitions shall be awarded, the method of election and admission and the conditions of tenure; provided that no scholarship or exhibition shall be awarded before entry unless the attainments of the candidates shall have been tested by an open examination instituted for the purpose.

3. Emoluments shall be given only on application from the elected candidates and provided that the Principal is satisfied that they are in need of financial assistance, and that the total emoluments assigned out of the revenues of the Hall to a scholar shall not exceed £100
