By virtue of an Act passed in the 24th year of the Reign of His Majesty King George III, intituled, "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts made in the 10th and 15th years of the Reign of His present Majesty, as authorizes The Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out Writs for the Election of Members to serve in Parliament in the manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes"; and of an Act passed in the 26th year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria intituled "An Act to further limit and define the time for proceeding to Election during the Recess."

I do hereby give notice, that the death of Colonel Albert William Goodman, late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the Borough of Islington, North Division, hath been certified to me in writing under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament, and that I shall issue my Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new Writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said Division at the end of six days after the insertion of this Notice in the London Gazette.

His Majesty The KING has been graciously pleased to award the Edward Medal to John Wright, in recognition of his gallantry in the following circumstances:—

On the 25th May, 1937, a workman at the Ottovale Works, Blaydon-on-Tyne, was overcome by benzol fumes when he was carrying out repairs at the top of a column. While steps were being taken to obtain ropes to lower the workman to the ground Wright immediately climbed up, without a gas mask, with a view to preventing him from falling, pending the arrival of help. Finding it essential to remove him at once from the fumes he raised the unconscious man on to his back and crawled with him for about 14 feet along three nine inch planks below part of which there was a drop of 44 feet. Wright showed great courage and initiative and risked his life in rescuing his fellow workman.
