

applied to in respect of any act, not being one in respect of which there is an obligation to grant extradition under the preceding provisions of this Article, but which is a crime or offence which is punishable, according to the laws of both of the High Contracting Parties for the time being in force, by not less than two years' imprisonment, and for which, according to the said laws, the grant may be made."

ARTICLE 2.

The foregoing amendment shall apply to extradition proceedings between Hungary on the one hand and, on the other hand, the following territories of His Majesty, that is to say, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man, Newfoundland, British Colonies, British Protectorates to which the Extradition Treaty of the 3rd December, 1873, applies, and mandated territories to which the said Treaty has been or may be extended, and in respect of which the mandate is exercised by His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

ARTICLE 3.

The High Contracting Parties agree that His Majesty the King may accede to the present Treaty in respect of any other Member of the British Commonwealth of Nations, whose Government may desire that such accession be effected, by a notice given to that effect by the appropriate diplomatic representative of His Majesty at Budapest. From the date that such notice comes into force the amendment set forth in Article 1 shall apply to extradition proceedings between Hungary on the one hand, and, on the other, the territory of the Member of the Commonwealth concerned.

Any notice given under the first paragraph of this Article in respect of any Member of the British Commonwealth of Nations may include any territory in respect of which a mandate on behalf of the League of Nations has been accepted by His Majesty and is exercised by the Government of the Member concerned.

ARTICLE 4.

The present Treaty shall be ratified. The ratifications shall be exchanged in London as soon as possible.

ARTICLE 5.

The present Treaty shall enter into force three months after the exchange of ratifications and shall have the same duration as the Extradition Treaty of the 3rd December, 1873.

In faith whereof the above named plenipotentiaries have signed the present Treaty and have affixed thereto their seals.

His Majesty has acceded to the said supplementary Treaty in respect of the Dominion of New Zealand.

And whereas His Majesty has been advised by his Ministers in New Zealand to take the necessary steps to cause the said recited Acts to be applied in the case of Hungary in respect of New Zealand in accordance with the said supplementary Treaty:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Him by the said recited Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the 14th day of March, 1938, the said Acts shall apply in respect of New Zealand in the case of Hungary under and in accordance with the said Treaty of the 3rd December, 1873, as modified by the Declaration of the 26th June, 1901, and by the Supplementary Treaty of the 18th September, 1936.

This Order may be cited as the Hungary (Extradition: New Zealand) Order in Council, 1938.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of February, 1938.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Convention on the Execution of Foreign Arbitral Awards was on the twenty-sixth day of September nineteen hundred and twenty-seven signed at Geneva on behalf of His Majesty:

And whereas by subsection (1) of Section 1 of the Arbitration (Foreign Awards) Act, 1930, it is provided that Part I of that Act applies to any award made after the twenty-eighth day of July, nineteen hundred and twenty-four—

(a) in pursuance of an agreement for arbitration to which the protocol set out in the Schedule to the Arbitration Clauses (Protocol) Act, 1924, applies; and

(b) between persons of whom one is subject to the jurisdiction of some one of such Powers as His Majesty being satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been made by Order in Council declare to be parties to the said Convention and of whom the other is subject to the jurisdiction of some other of the Powers aforesaid; and

(c) in one of such territories as His Majesty being satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been made may by Order in Council declare to be territories to which the said Convention applies:

And whereas His Majesty is one of the Powers declared by Order in Council to be a party to the said Convention:

And whereas His Majesty is satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been made:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon Him by the said Act and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf is pleased to declare and it is hereby declared as follows:—

1. India, excluding the territories of any Prince or Chief under the suzerainty of His Majesty, is a territory to which the said Convention applies.

2. This Order may be cited as the Arbitration (Foreign Awards) No. 1 Order 1938, and shall come into force on the 24th day of February, 1938.

M. P. A. Hankey.
