

in Council of the 25th June, 1903, and the 4th September, 1918:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Orders in Council be further varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, notwithstanding anything in the said Orders in Council of the 7th December, 1855, the 25th June, 1903, and the 4th September, 1918, it shall be lawful after the death of the Right Honourable Warner Francis John Plantagenet, 15th Earl of Huntingdon, and his wife, and subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth, to bury their bodies in the Churchyard of the Parish Church of St. Helen, Ashby-de-la-Zouch, in a walled grave to be constructed in a grave space in which no interment has taken place within the period of fourteen years prior to the 1st day of June, 1938: provided that the burials hereby authorised shall be subject to compliance with the requirement that each of the coffins buried in such walled grave shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 23rd day of June, 1938.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Minister of Health, after giving 10 days' previous notice of his intention in that behalf, has, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by subsequent enactments, made a Representation to His Majesty in Council that for the protection of the Public Health, the opening of any new burial ground in the Civil Parish of St. John's, Castlerigg and Wythburn Township, in the County of Cumberland, save with the previous approval of the Minister of Health, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein as hereinafter directed:

And whereas by an Order in Council of the 6th May, 1938, Notice of such Representation was given, and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 20th day of June next, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that no new burial ground shall be opened in the said Civil Parish of St. John's, Castlerigg and Wythburn Township, save with the previous approval of the Minister of Health, and that burials shall be discontinued therein as follows, viz.:—

St. John's, Castlerigg and Wythburn Township.—Forthwith and entirely in the Wythburn Churchyard, in the said Parish.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 23rd day of June, 1938.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 8th day of July, 1937, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Islington, Saint Bartholomew, and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Islington, Saint Stephen, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Middlesex and in the Diocese of London:

" Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, pursuant to the provisions of the said Measures, to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Islington, Saint Bartholomew, and Islington, Saint Stephen, duly made their Report to the said Bishop of London and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of London signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

" And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices which Scheme is based upon the terms recommended in the said Report but with the assent of the said Bishop of London embodies certain modifications thereof:

" And whereas the said Benefice of Islington, Saint Stephen, is now full the Reverend James Paget Wright being the present Incumbent thereof and the said Benefice of Islington, Saint Bartholomew, is at present vacant:

" And whereas the Patronage of the said Benefice of Islington, Saint Stephen now belongs to the Incumbent for the time being of the Benefice of Islington:

" And whereas the Patronage of the said Benefice of Islington, Saint Bartholomew, belongs to the Trustees of the Church Trust Fund and the said Trustees are willing to surrender such Patronage to the said Incumbent of the said Benefice of Islington, and his successors, to the intent that the Patronage of the United Benefice hereinafter recommended and proposed to be constituted shall belong wholly to the Incumbent for the time being of the said Benefice of Islington:

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, with the consents of the said Trustees of the Church Trust Fund namely the Reverend Earle Legh Langston, of The Rectory, Sevenoaks, in the County of Kent, Robert Armitage, Esquire, of Farnley Hall, Leeds, in the County of York, the Reverend Alfred St. John Thorpe, of the Vicarage, Watford, in the County of Hertford, Frederick William Carter, Esquire, of Ashmead, Redhill, in the County of Surrey, Ernest
